Ike Moved To Washington

A SMILE FROM THE GENERAL... Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, wearing a high-necked white sweater beneath his robe, smiles aboard the special train which brought him to Washington today from Augusta, Ga. A helicopter flew the general to Walter Reed Army Medical Center for further treatment of his damaged heart. Behind him are Col. Loren F. Farney, left, and Maj. Velma J. Barkley. Associated Press photographer Paul Vathis made the photograph. (AP Photofax)

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was brought here by train from Ft. Gordon, Ga., overnight and transferred by helicopter to Walter Reed Army Hospital for further treatment of his damaged heart.

The special train pulled in at nearby Alexandria, Va., shortly after daybreak but there was a wait of more than an hour while final preparations were made aboard. Word from the train was that everything on the train had gone smoothly.

The touchdown on the hospital grounds was at 8:41 a.m. (EST).

Aides immediately started moving the 75-year-old five-star general on a litter to a waiting ambulance.

The helicopter sat down in front of the atom bomb-proof building of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology where Eisenhower was met by top officials of the Walter Reed complex.

The ambulance set out immediately for the hospital in the same area but several blocks away.

Eisenhower was shielded from close observation by bystanders. Felix Belar of the New York Times, representing all the press on the Eisenhower train, gave this account of the arrival:

Eisenhower posed for pictures sitting up in a wheel chair, dressed in a black and gold bathrobe and a white turtle-neck sweater. "I'm feeling fine," he said. "It was a wonderful train ride, wasn't it?" Dr. Thomas W. Mattingly, the general's physician, said that from present indications Eisenhower will be able to walk around in about two weeks and will have to spend about two additional weeks in Walter Reed before moving to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm. This schedule would get him home by Christmas.

Meanwhile, there appears to be no reason why the planned Thanksgiving family reunion at the hospital should not take place.

Mrs. Eisenhower posed separately for pictures and remarked, "I can't tell you how relieved I am."

Viet Town Holds Out Against 2,000 Reds

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A district town on the central coast of South Viet Nam held out today against a force of about 2,000 Viet Cong attacking it for the second day. Five other government posts in the area were feared overrun by the Communists.

A government relief force was driven back and had to withdraw after hard fighting, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

Girl Escapes From Kidnaper

BASTROP, La. (AP)—Nancy Keller spurned a juicy steak and took instead a peanut butter sandwich to celebrate her escape from a vacant house where a kidnaper held her prisoner for 24 hours.

"Daddy, I'm all right," the freckle-faced, 8-year-old girl told her father by telephone late Monday. "Daddy, will you come get me?"

Nancy was abducted Sunday while playing in front of her home. A playmate told authorities the kidnaper forced Nancy into and drove away rapidly in an old car as the girl screamed.

Within an hour after she escaped from the two-story house on the outskirts of this northeast Louisiana papermill town of 15,000, FBI and local police had arrested a man identified as Douglas Charles Emerich, 18. Authorities whisked him to a jail at Monroe, 22 miles away and said charges would be filed today.

"He was good to me," Nancy said as she munched on the peanut butter sandwich at her home, following a tearful reunion with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Keller.

The girl told her parents her abductor had put her in the attic with the order: "Stay there and I'll be back in about 45 minutes."

He didn't return, she said, and she slipped away to a nearby house and telephoned her frantic parents.

"I was scared," she admitted. She said she had had only three pieces of candy to eat.

"He made me lie down on the floorboard of the car and took me to his house," she said. She recounted that her abductor told her "to go to the other

2 Women Dead In Collision on Icy Highway

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two women employees of the Minnesota State Health Department were killed Monday when their car and another collided head-on on icy U. S. Highway 55 just south of Elbow Lake, in western Minnesota.

The deaths raised Minnesota's 1965 traffic toll to 733, compared with 755 a year ago.

The victims were Alice Faye Ingebritson, 20, St. Louis Park, and Sharon J. Skanse, 26, Minneapolis. The Highway Patrol said the two women were driving a state car.

Orrin M. Kalland, 40, Barrett Minn., the driver of the second car, was injured seriously. Kalland was hospitalized at Elbow Lake.

Three persons died in separate accidents Sunday, all in the Twin Cities.

Marines Try New Rifles

DA NANG, Viet Nam (AP)—A special team of U.S. Marine Corps expert riflemen killed two Viet Cong today from a distance of more than 1,000 yards, a Marine spokesman announced.

The Marines set up rifle positions outside known Viet Cong Bunkers in the Hue-Phu Bai sector north of Da Nang. They fired when the two Viet Cong came out of their holes at dusk. A third was reported wounded.

The Marines have been trained with special Winchester Model 70 rifles, which have a range about twice that of their standard infantry weapon, the M16. This was the team's first confirmed kill.

U.S. Pulls Battalion Out of West Berlin

Rushed There When Wall Was Erected

BERLIN (AP)—The U. S. Army announced today that it is withdrawing the extra infantry battalion stationed in West Berlin since the Communists built the Berlin Wall in 1961.

The extra unit has been rotated every three months with a battalion from West Germany. The Army said it will be withdrawn in January.

The Army statement emphasized "that the return of the extra battalion to its home unit in West Germany in no way alters the United States' long-standing commitment to Berlin."

The rotating unit totals about 700 men. Three other infantry battalions are regularly assigned to the Berlin brigade, which with such support troops as artillery and armor normally totals about 6,000 men.

The increase of U.S. strength in Communist-surrounded West Berlin was ordered by the late President John F. Kennedy during the time of high East-West tension when the Communists started building the wall.

The Army said that removal of the extra battalion was part of a reorganization program for U.S. forces in Germany under which the three infantry divisions in West Germany will receive additional armor during the first half of 1966.

Bill to Curb Killing Hunters Will Be Offered

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A Wisconsin state senator has moved for the drafting of a bill he believes "will end the senseless slaughter of hunters."

"At the present time there are more hunters in northern Wisconsin than we have soldiers in Viet Nam," Sen. Taylor Benson, D-Franksville, said Monday. "The only difference is that the guys in Viet Nam know how to use their rifles."

An estimated 400,000 persons have been licensed to hunt during the current deer hunting season.

Benson asked the Legislative Reference Library to draft a bill that would require a person applying for a big game hunting license to present a certificate vouching for his eyesight and another certificate vouching for his physical condition.

The bill would disqualify hunters who are color blind and would require a would-be hunter to sign a statement saying he is qualified to use the weapon he plans to hunt with.

Benson said the steps were necessary to get "some sanity in our hunting."

The 1965 season has claimed the lives of 17 hunters, four from gun shot wounds and 13 from heart attacks.

The figure is only one below the total for the entire 1964 season when 18 hunters died, 15 of them heart attack victims.

The nine-day 1954 season opened last Saturday.

Dead of a heart attack Monday was Louis Prue, 74, of Fildfield. Prue died en route to a Parks Falls hospital, after being stricken while hunting northeast of Fildfield.

Plot to Throw Acid at Bobby Kennedy Foiled

RECEIFE, Brazil (AP)—Brazilian police say they have foiled a plot to throw acid in Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's face.

Police arrested three students Monday night and sought two others. Officials said the attack was planned for noon today during a visit by the New York Democrat to the federal University of Pernambuco here.

The acid-throwing was to be a signal for anti-U.S. demonstrations throughout Latin America, police said.

Kennedy and his wife, Ethel, are on a South American tour. They arrived in this Brazilian port Monday night but rested after a heavy schedule and were not available for comment.

Kennedy brushed off Sunday an incident last week in Concepcion, Chile, where Communist students shouted him down; hurled eggs and spat on him. "I have met with students in Peru and Chile — we had a nice time there," he told a student group at Sao Paulo.

Local sources said many Peruvian and Bolivian students are studying in Recife under cultural exchange programs.

Police said those arrested were a Peruvian, Jorge Enrique Vadviesco Pernal, and two Brazilians, Maria do Carmo Barbosa and Enrique de Calvalho Matos.

The Kennedys were enthusiastically received in Salvador and Natal Monday, the third day of their visit to Brazil and the second anniversary of President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

The senator and his wife attended a morning Mass in the centuries-old Sao Francisco church, then toured mud-flat slums and the Dalva Matos Foundation which cares for about 300 children, most of them illegitimate.

Tears formed in Kennedy's eyes when youngsters at the foundation sang "God Bless America" in Portuguese to the accompaniment of an out-of-tune piano.

"The most important thing for President Kennedy was children," he told a group of slum youngsters. "If you think something of President Kennedy, then the thing most important is to go to school as long as you can."

Postmaster General Sorry For Tardy Package Delivery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien is not one to stand — or to let the U.S. mail stand — between a young man and his true love.

And if Bonnie Bishop says "Yes" Christmas Day when JM. Delane Roberts pops the question, it'll be with a slight assist from O'Brien.

Roberts is a student at the University of California, Miss Bishop at Brigham Young University in Utah. And it's on those 750 miles between Berkeley and Provo that this sentimental tale hangs.

Rain Isolates Palm Springs

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Record-breaking rains swamped Southern California today in a sea of mudslides and flooded streets, isolated the desert resort of Palm Springs, knocked out power, closed schools and caused evacuation of scores of families.

More than three inches of rain have fallen since Sunday in the second storm in a week. The Weather Bureau forecast at least four more inches by Wednesday and another storm loomed for Thursday.

All roads to Palm Springs were closed Monday night when flash floods roared down from the San Jacinto Mountains and flooded highways. Helicopters picked up stranded motorists. Power was out in the area for 45 minutes.

Fight fans heading for the Cassius Clay-Floyd Patterson match in Las Vegas — some with $100 tickets — were stranded in Los Angeles when airlines canceled late-afternoon flights. Planes coming in from other points also bypassed Las Vegas because of bad weather.

Continual rains delayed removal of tons of muck and rock which sheared off from Pacific Palisades Monday, blocking a 200-yard stretch of Pacific Coast Highway. A beach refreshment stand was flattened.

Five hundred children were evacuated from an elementary school in the Ventura County community of Thousand Oaks, northwest of Los Angeles, when officials feared a mudslide might block the only access road.

In the nearby Simi Valley, where 200 homes were damaged when a flood-control channel collapsed in last week's storms, emergency crews bulldozed the debris-filled channel.

India to Buy 4 Submarines

ROME (AP)—Indian Minister of Agriculture C. Subramaniam and U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman spent 2 1/2 hours together Monday night at a dinner given by the Indian minister. Their conversation reportedly centered on Indian requests for American surplus wheat.

Freeman Confers On Italian Problems

NEW DELHI (AP)—India will buy four submarines and "a number" of torpedo boats, patrol craft and small amphibious landing craft from the Soviet Union, informed sources said.

The United States and Britain had turned down Indian requests for the naval craft.

Defense Minister Y.B. Chavan told Parliament Monday India had contracted to buy submarines and "other naval craft" from Moscow. He gave no details.

France Set To Re-elect Gen. De Gaulle

QUIMPER, France (AP)—Stability is a magic word in Brittany, and Gen. Charles de Gaulle apparently has a monopoly on the public image of stability.

A tour of villages and towns shows a high percentage of support for re-election of De Gaulle as president in the Dec. 5 elections. Other candidates get hardly a mention.

Brittany is the western outpost of France, a tongue lolling out into the Atlantic. Its five departments represent roughly 7 per cent of the area of France and of the population.

Most of the American troops coming to France in World War I entered through Brittany's ports. In World War II, GIs fought last-ditch German resistance in Saint Nazaire and Brest and finally captured towns that were reduced to rubble.

Ask about the election here and you get answers like this:

"We suffered too much, and were too often humiliated by the constant changing of governments before De Gaulle. We want something stable and he is the one who can best assure it."

That is not to say there is no grumbling. Shipyard workers in Nantes and Saint Nazaire have seen many jobs disappear. Farmers are chronically dissatisfied about disparity between farm prices and consumer prices, and surpluses that remain unsold.

Marches on government headquarters in the shipbuilding centers to protest reductions in employment were common a few years ago. Farmers often blocked roads with their carts to call attention to their plight.

But these grievances seem to have been set aside for the election.

"This is the first time the French people have ever had a chance to vote for the president," said a newsman in Quimper. "They're taking their responsibility seriously. They are thinking about what is best for the whole country, rather than just thinking about themselves."

Wisconsin December Draft Quota Is 804

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin's draft call for December is down slightly despite an increase in the national quota.

The state selective service office reported Monday that Wisconsin's December quota is 804, compared with 871 in November.

It said the national draft call for December is 40,200, compared with the November call of 38,350 men.

New Wisconsin Income Tax Forms Mailed

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The Wisconsin Tax Department says it will make a major effort to explain the state's new income tax law.

Tax Commissioner James Morgan said Monday copies of a new "simplified" form are being mailed for study to tax service agencies and legislators. A speaker's bureau also has been organized to serve civic and private organizations.

The 1965 Wisconsin Legislature boosted income tax rates one-fifth of one percent but also rewrote the law to make exemptions conform with federal deductions.

IN MANY cases the taxpayers will only enclose a copy of his federal return with his state return rather than make out a separate form.

The new law provides that a person who is under 19 or a full time student may be listed as a dependent even if he or she earns more than $800 during a year.

Other additional deductions taxpayers will be allowed: Property taxes paid on real-estate.

Sales taxes and gasoline taxes.

Some child care and educational expenses.

Donations to organizations operating outside Wisconsin.

Payments of self employed persons to qualified retirement plans.

Alimony paid in excess of $800 a year.

Deductions that will no longer be allowed included capital losses of more than $1,000 a year and loss on the sale of a residence.

Northern Natural Wants to Build Canada Gas Line

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Northern Natural Gas Co. wants to build a $200 million pipeline system to deliver natural gas from western Canada to eastern Canadian markets via the United States.

W. A. Strauss, Northern's president, said Monday the Federal Power Commission will be asked by Dec. 30 to grant permission for the company to build the system.

Under the proposal, Northern would serve Canadian natural gas to its existing customers in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Upper Michigan markets and send an equivalent amount of United States gas to eastern Canada. Such an exchange would lower future gas transmission costs for both United States and Canadian consumers, he added.

Strauss said Northern proposes to add some 900 miles of new large diameter pipeline to carry gas from Emerson, Manitoba, to Duluth, Minn., and then to the international border near Detroit for Trans-Canada Pipelines, Limited. It would also provide service to the Sault Ste. Marie area by extending the pipeline now serving the Marquette, Mich., area.

State Hopes to Avoid Dormitories At Junior Colleges

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Legislature has implied that junior colleges should not be in the dormitory business.

Atty. Gen. Robert Mattson said today.

The question came before the State Junior College Board in connection with a proposal by businessmen at Worthington to build a dormitory for the junior college there. The businessmen asked, however, that the State Junior College Board endorse the plan so that a federal loan could be secured.

Mattson said the prevailing philosophy is to have enough junior colleges so that all students may commute from their homes, rather than becoming students in residence.

Since there is no specific authorization for the junior college board to build dormitories, Mattson said, the board cannot participate in a private venture to build them.

In other opinions, Mattson's office:

Advised the City of Duluth that all damage claim settlements over $2,500 must be approved by the district court, regardless of whether the case involves a lawsuit.

Advised Yellow Medicine County that its auditor may receive certain fees after he goes on a salary basis, provided the fees were earned earlier.

And, advised the McLeod County board that it cannot order consolidation of a closed school district until the outcome is known of a court appeal involving the district.

Topless Costumes Barred in Seattle

Go-go dancers have been appearing in some Seattle night spots in topless costumes.

Option Authorized By School Board

Authorization for negotiation of an option contract for the purchase of a 16.46-acre parcel of land near the east limits of the city as a site for the Winona Area Vocational - Technical School was voted by the Board of Education at a special meeting Monday.

Owned by Winona Management Co., Inc., the tract lies immediately west of the site of the green house, north-east of St. Mary's Cemetery, and is bounded on the south and north, respectively, by old and new Highway 61.

School Board

ACTION to obtain an option on the property was taken by the board after its attorney, Roger Brosnahan informed directors that William S. L. Christensen of Winona Management had made an offer for sale of the land at a price of $987 an acre.

The tract is 330 feet wide and extends something like 1,000 feet back from the old highway frontage to the new highway right of way.

The effect of Monday's board resolution is to authorize board President Lawrence Santelman to enter into an option contract with Winona Management and it appeared Monday night that one point will have to be resolved before the option is finalized.

SANTELMAN told directors that in his conversations with Christensen the latter had expressed an interest in retaining the south - or old highway - 150-foot frontage of the strip with the provision that the board would be allowed any access it required to the site.

Santelman said that it was his understanding that Christensen was interested in retaining this is 330- by 150-foot portion as "a buffer zone" between the school and his nearby residential property.

The owner, Santelman said, had mentioned the possibility of erecting one or two houses in this is retained area but that this would not necessarily be done. The board a week ago, at the conclusion of an extended study of various possible school sites, had gone on record as favoring the Stebrecht area as the location for the new school.

AFTER HEARING Santel-

man's report on conversations with the owner Monday several board members wondered whether arrangements might be made so that both the school system's and Christensen's purposes might be served with the board acquiring full title to the entire tract under discussion.

One suggestion was made by Thomas W. Raine, director of the vocational-technical school, who asked whether Christensen's desire for a buffer area would not be satisfied if the board were to agree in its purchase of the tract that the school would be built back at least 150 feet from the old highway.

Outright opposition to retention by Winona Management of the front 150 feet of the strip was expressed by Ray Gorsuch, 1st Ward director, who said that, among other things, this seemed to him to be the most valuable portion of the tract. Gorsuch also cited other factors which he felt made it advisable for the board to obtain title to the entire tract.

DIRECTORS agreed that the matter of the retention of a portion of the tract could be settled by Santelman in his negotiations for the option contract.

If the board does enter into a purchase agreement with Winona Management for the 16.46-acre tract it probably will have to acquire additional adjacent property to provide for an adequate school site.

Although a definite figure has never been established by the board in its discussion of site, most conversations have indicated that a minimum of be-

Rain Predicted; It May Turn Into Snowfall

Today's weather forecast rubbed a little of the luster off the promising outlook for Thanksgiving Day issued Monday.

Increasing cloudiness and a little warmer is the prediction for tonight with a low temperature of 26 to 32. Occasional rain is seen by late tonight. Mostly cloudy is the word for Wednesday with rain changing to snow and a high of 30-35.

THANKSGIVING DAY, said the weatherman, will be a little colder but with no precipitation.

The temperature moved to a high of 48 Monday, short of the all-time high of 56 set on Nov. 22, 1908, when northwest winds and overcast ended the bright morning sunshine. The low overnight was 24 and at noon today the reading was 35.

A year ago today with two and a half inches of snow on the ground the high was 34 and the low 14. The all-time high for today was 61 in 1931 and the low -4 in 1950. Mean for the past 24 hours was 36. Normal for this day is 30.

It was snowing at International Falls this morning but clear most other places in Minnesota. At the Falls the morning temperature was 14, lowest in the state. It was 15 at Brainerd and Alexandria and 18 at Duluth.

Rochester posted a morning minimum of 19 after a Monday high of 42 and La Crosse had figures of 25 and 49 for the same times.

Calgary and Edmonton, Canada, with readings of 9 and 10, had light snowfalls.

The extreme northern part of WISCONSIN, where the deer hunting season is in full swing, got about an inch of new snow Monday. But the southern portion had clear skies and afternoon temperatures in the 50s.

Park Falls now has 6 inches of snow on the ground and the Superior-Duluth area has 4 inches. Marquette County in Upper Michigan had 13 inches.

The highest temperature reported in the state Monday was 56 degrees in the Beloit-Rockford area. Others included Lone Rock 55, Madison 54, Milwaukee and Racine 52, Green Bay 47, Eau Claire 42, Wausau 41, Park Falls 33, and Superior-Duluth 32.

THE SNOWFALL at Superior was followed by cold weather. During the night the temperature dropped to 14 degrees there. The nation's lowest was 2 below zero at Grand Forks, N.D., compared with Monday's high of 87 at McAllen, Tex.

Other lows in the state during the night ranged from 20 at Eau Claire to 31 in Milwaukee.

Park Board Defers Action On Wage Issue

Wage and fringe demands for park-recreation department employees again were put off for later action by the Park-Recreation Board at its Monday meeting.

A delegation of workers, led by Russell Bundy, Teamsters Union Local 799 business agent, was present.

DR. C. A. Rohrer, president, said the board would make its decision later so that its newest member Pat Twomey, could familiarize himself with details. Twomey was appointed in place of E. M. Allen last month. Allen has left the city.

Bundy briefly reviewed the list of employee requests that still have not been acted upon by the board. Previous negotiations were cut off when Bundy and his delegation walked out of the board's September meeting. Board members had said then that they would follow guidelines indicated by the City Council for other city employees, chiefly those of the street department.

Items listed by Bundy were: Payment upon retirement of accumulated sick leave in the form of severance pay; vacation allowances of two weeks after one year employment, three weeks after 10 years with an extra day for each year after 15 years, up to four weeks at 20 years; paid hospitalization, and a 10 percent cash pay rise. Present vacation schedules are two weeks after one year and three weeks after 15 years.

DR. ROHRER noted that new pay scales for city employees do not become final until next May and said a decision would be made before then.

Bundy said that increases ordered by the council in its upcoming budget had amounted in some instances to 14 percent.

Operator Sought For New Boat Harbor at Pepin

PEPIN, Wis. — Pepin is searching for someone to operate its newly completed small boat harbor.

The cost was approximately $117,716, the federal government paying $92,716 and the village $25,000.

The village would prefer to lease the harbor to an operator instead of installing and owning the facilities, according to W. M. Thompson, a member of the harbor commission. The village might consider charging the lessee nothing for up to three years to give him a start.

The harbor probably will berth boats from Durand, Eau Claire, Menomonie and other western Wisconsin points in addition to local boats and itinerant traffic, Thompson said.

Dredged to a minimum depth of five feet, the harbor is protected by a rubble mound breakwater. Included in the project is a parking lot 75 by 115 feet. The village plans a bathhouse eventually and other facilities for swimming along a sandy beach immediately west of the harbor breakwater.

Arcadia Soldier Dies in Viet Nam

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — An Arcadia soldier — son of an Arcadian believed to have been the first American to die in Europe during World War II — died in Viet Nam Saturday of stomach and facial wounds received Friday when he walked in front of friendly machine gun fire.

A telegram announcing Specialist Ronald P. Johnson's death was received at 4:30 p.m. Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Johnson, Arcadia. Saturday night they had been informed that he had been wounded.

The telegram from the adjutant's general office in Washington, D.C., informed the parents that their son was on a search and destroy mission on a rainy and dark night.

The family was told that a representative of the 5th U.S. Army would come and offer assistance.

RONALD enlisted in the Army in June 1963 immediately after graduating from Arcadia High School. He was sent to Viet Nam last September after being stationed at Fort Carson, Colo. His enlistment would have expired next June. He was 21.

This is the fourth death in Viet Nam among servicemen from Western Wisconsin and Southeastern Minnesota.

Ronald was born in London. His father married Dorothy Dempster of Kilmarnock, Scotland, in London May 2, 1942. He was serving with the 32nd or Red Arrow Division military police company from Arcadia.

His wife, with the British Royal Air Force, was working as a dental technician.

News media at that time reported their marriage was the first of an American soldier to a European girl.

RONALD'S survivors are: His parents, one sister, Mrs. Carroll (Frances) Hackelberg, Whitehall, and two brothers, Michael, in the U.S. Navy aboard the USS America, an aircraft carrier, and Stephen, 8th grader at St. Aloysius Catholic School, Arcadia.

Jurors drawn were Ray Malin, La Crescent Township; Mrs. Leonard Wieser, La Crescent village; Mrs. Alden Pilger, Hokah village; Mrs. Paul Klankowski, August J. Korthauer and Mrs. Rolf Jore, Caledonia village; Phillip Eberhard and Walter Albrecht, Mound Prairie Township; Mrs. Allen Carlson, Houston village; Mrs. Leona Winjum, Black Hammer Township; Peter Ideker, Hokah Township, and Mrs. George Potratz, Winnebago Township.

WIDA Group Checks on Shell Building

A Winona Industrial Development Association committee was on an inspection trip today preparatory to erecting a speculative factory building.

The committee has been authorized to finance, build, lease and sell the shell-type building in Airport Industrial Park. The site is to be acquired from the city.

It is expected that the structure will contain about 20,000 square feet. Estimated cost is near $75,000.

On the committee appointed by President Kenneth McQueen are Robert Selover, Dan Przybylski and Royal Thern. McQueen accompanied the committee to Albert Lea, Minn., today to view similar buildings.

It is considered likely that a local contractor will erect the building and finance it until it is sold.

GILMANTON, Wis. (Special) A new treasurer has been appointed for Town of Gilmanton.

Ralph J. Moy, Mondovi Rt. 2, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Elmer Rud, who died Nov. 13. The announcement was made by Lyman Dieckman, town chairman. Moy was appointed to serve until the spring election in 1967, when the term expires.

This is the second appointment by the board this year. Woodrow Rose was appointed to replace Arnold Hanson as member of the board when Hanson moved out of the town.

THE JURY panel was excused until further notice. Cases scheduled Wednesday were canceled because of Thanksgiving.

Two adoptions by La Crescent residents were approved, one brought in by John Rippe of Roerke, Rippe & Lee, Caledonia, and the other by John R. McDonald, La Crescent.

Car Hits Deer On Highway 43

A Wilson Township deer damaged a car and may have caused itself some injury when it ran into a Lanesboro, Minn., car Monday evening on Highway 43, according to a report received by Sheriff George L. Fort.

Dallas Garnatz, Lanesboro, told Sheriff Fort Monday at 6:57 p.m. that he was driving along the highway in Wilson Township, just west of the L. C. Lietzow farm, when a deer ran into the side of his car.

Garnatz was to notify the sheriff if the damage to his vehicle turned out to be more than $100. Game Warden Francis Teske has been told of the mishap.

Charter Group Approves Its Study Program

The new city charter commission, still feeling its way, formally adopted a program of procedure submitted two weeks ago by the president, Norman Indall.

Three committees were appointed by the president in a move to accomplish some preliminary objectives set out in the schedule.

THE COMMISSION listened briefly to City Attorney George M. Robertson Jr. and voted to devote its entire Dec. 13 meeting to a session with Orville Peterson, executive secretary of the League of Minnesota Municipalities.

State law requires that, if a new charter is proposed by the commission, it must provide for election of a mayor and council by the voters, Robertson said. A proposed charter may provide any form of municipal government that is consistent with the state constitution, he added.

A new charter if drafted and submitted by the commission to the people, must also be consistent with existing state laws, Robertson said.

This consistency does not extend to special state laws passed solely to apply to the city, Harold Streator, former city attorney, pointed out. A new charter can omit or retain any such laws that are desired, he said.

CONSTITUTIONALITY of sections of a new charter can be determined in some cases by the advice of commission counsel or of the attorney general, Robertson noted. The League of Municipalities also will review a charter draft for constitutionality, free of charge, added Dan Trainor Jr., a commission member.

There appears to be no constitutional question with respect to possible retention or elimination of existing boards in a draft proposal, Streator observed. But the law seems to say that a new charter would take precedence over state laws affecting the old one, he said. In any event, he advised, the attorney general's opinion should be sought on such matters.

Two boards, the Latsch Memorial Board and the Winona Athletic Board, appear to be inviolate since they are established by deeds giving the city certain lands under strict conditions, said Roy Wildgrube, former city recorder.

JAMES BAMBENEK asked whether a charter would be constitutional if it were copied from one already in use by another city. It likely would be, Streator said, but all the provisions may not have been tested in courts so this leaves some uncertainty in any model.

Wildgrube distributed charts showing structure of Winona city government. He said the city's 17 boards are constituted either by special deeds, general statutes of Minnesota, special state laws or by city ordinances.

Following a move by William Theurer to adopt the proposed schedule, Martin Beatty asked if detailed study could be given to several factors in city government. These would include a study of the history of special legislation affecting the city—to help explain origin and makeup of city boards — and of how city finances work. The administration of some funds by special boards should be examined, he said, and a review should be made of the will of the late John Latsch.

AGREEING that such details should be investigated, Indall said he believed the topics would be covered in later sections of the schedule.

Streator said some of the history could be gained from personal recollections of various commission members. Wildgrube praised the late Mr. Latsch as "the most generous man Winona will ever see." The

Wisconsin Election Activity Beginning

By RUTH ROGERS
Daily News Area Editor

Activity will begin this week in the first of Wisconsin's three 1966 elections.

Candidates for state and county judicial candidates, city offices, and county supervisors for the April election may begin filing nomination papers Friday. For the nonpartisan county offices, nomination papers may be secured from the county clerk and should be filed with the county clerk. For state judicial office nominations will be filed with Secretary of State Robert C. Zimmerman, Madison.

VILLAGE officers will be elected in April, but candidates for these offices are nominated usually by caucuses which will be held between March 4 and 13.

Three SCHOOL DISTRICTS in this area will elect officers in April: Durand, Cochrane-Fountain City and Mondovi. Other school districts elect at their annual meetings in July.

Three or more state REFERENDUMS will be included in the spring election, in addition to any referendums on which villages and cities may vote.

TOWNS won't elect officers. They elect every two years in odd-numbered years. The other two elections will be the primary Sept. 13 and general election Nov. 8 for partisan county and state offices.

The only vacancy on the SUPREME COURT will be Thomas E. Fairchild, whose term will expire the following January.

No CIRCUIT JUDGE judgeships will expire next year in the four-county area: Buffalo, Jackson, Pepin and Trempealeau County.

The term of only one COUNTY JUDGE in the area will expire. Candidates may begin filing Friday for Jackson County judge to succeed Richard F. Lawton. Buffalo County Judge Gary Schlossstein was elected last spring for the six-year term. Trempealeau County Judge A. L. Twesme's term won't expire until 1968, indicating an election in 1967. Pepin County Judge John Bartholomew was elected in 1963 for a six-year term beginning in 1964.

New next year for the first time in the state's history will be the election of COUNTY BOARD members under the reapportionment plan ordered by the Supreme Court, generally reducing the number of members on boards.

Buffalo County will elect 14 members, a decline from 20; Jackson County Board will drop from 30 to 21; Pepin County will elect 12, a drop of one, and the Trempealeau County board will decline from 39 to 21.

Candidates for the new supervisory districts may file, as candidates for city offices, beginning Friday. City office candidates file with their city clerks. Last day for filing spring election nomination papers is Jan. 25.

fall elections may start circulating nomination papers May 13. The last day for filing is July 12.

The term of Vernon Thomson, Richland Center, 3rd district CONGRESSMAN representing the counties in this area, will expire at the end of the year and candidates for the office will appear on the primary and general election ballots.

There will be no state senator election for this area.

ASSEMBLYMEN will be elected, one to represent Trempealeau and Jackson counties and the other to represent Buffalo, Pepin and Pierce counties.

Elections for STATE OFFICERS will cover governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer and attorney general.

In COUNTIES there will be elections for register of deeds, clerk, treasurer, district attorney, coroner, sheriff, clerk of court, and surveyor.

At the general election in November, electors will vote on six STATE REFERENDUMS: Appropriations for acquiring, preserving and developing forests of the state; election of governor and lieutenant governor by single vote; transportation of school children; legislative sessions; sheriff's terms of office, and four-year terms for constitutional officers.

City Stump Removal Program Completed

Removal of stumps from city boulevards and other lands has now been completed, the Park-Recreation Board learned at its meeting Monday.

The last 132 stumps were removed this month, reported Bruce Reed, superintendent of parks and trees. About 900 stumps were taken out mechanically under a contract let early this year to Bunke's Tree Service, Rushford.

FROM NOW ON, said Reed, each year's crop of stumps will be taken out as it accumulates. Records of trees cut down will be kept by the department and the remaining stumps will be ground out each spring, he said. A $500 item in the department budget should be enough to cover expenses, he said.

Under terms of this year's contract the tree service was paid $14.50 for each hour of actual machine time. The contract set a limit of 100 hours, or $1,450 in total expense.

When the arbitrary limit was reached, a number of stumps remained. The board then authorized the contractor to continue under the established terms instead of waiting until next year and letting another contract.

Total cost of the project now has come to $3,625, the board was told by M. J. Bambenek, director of parks and recreation. The outlay was covered by a $4,200 item in the current year's budget, Bambenek pointed out.

A CITYWIDE root cutting job now also is virtually complete, Reed said. Last month the contractor, Henry Olson, made cuts on 638 trees and reported another 186 bypassed because they were too close to walks, Reed said.

The root cutting contract likewise was extended beyond its original specifications. In this case, as in the stump removal project, the amount of work that could be done in an hour was not known in advance of contracting. Thus the contracts were drawn for fixed time limits at specified hourly rates.

Olson's contract called for 1,000 hours at $11. The working time now has extended to about

Rolvaag Issues Thanks Appeal

ST. PAUL (AP) — Gov. Karl Rolvaag issued his annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation Monday, and called on Minnesotans to express appreciation for the nation's abundance by supporting the needy overseas.

Rolvaag urged support of the three major religious faiths, the Protestant "share our substance appeal," the Catholic "Bishops' Thanksgiving clothing collection," and the "United Jewish Appeal."

He said the three programs account for a preponderance of voluntary assistance to overseas people by Americans.

1,454 hours for a total bill to date of $15,995.50, Bambenek reported.

All city areas have now been reached, except for the portion south of Sarnia Street lying between Franklin and Sioux streets, Reed said. With favoring weather and the absence of hard freezes, the work probably can be finished this year, he added.

THE ROOT cutting process is designed to save sidewalks, curbs and driveways from damage by roots of trees that grow on city land. The cutting machine, built like an oversized buzz saw, slices off roots to a depth of nearly three feet in any place where its blade can operate between a tree and a sidewalk.

Since this year's budget contained an item of $3,400 for root cutting — the board once planned to buy its own machine — the balance of expense is being paid from department surpluses, Bambenek reported.

Such expenditures have made it necessary, for the first time since the combination park and recreation board was formed, to tap surpluses for payrolls, Bambenek said. This month, he reported, it was necessary to cash $6,000 in bank certificates of deposit to meet payrolls. This reduced the total of such certificates from $38,000 to $32,000.

THE BORROWING is a temporary measure, Bambenek assured board members, since a tax apportionment of about $45,000 to $50,000 is expected before the end of this month. The $6,000 probably will be restored to the investment account, he said.

Bambenek said that one reason for maintaining surpluses is that capital is needed to pay expenses between the tax apportionments which come three times a year. After the upcoming apportionment is received, the next one is due in April, he said.

Durand High Debaters Win Another First

DURAND, Wis. — Durand High School varsity debate team captured its second major title of the season by taking first place in the third annual Rochester invitational debate tournament Saturday.

A total of 25 teams from high schools in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa competed. At the end of three rounds of debate, Durand emerged with a perfect 6-0 record.

The affirmative team of Barbara Morey and Gary Wekkin defeated teams from Blake, Caledonia, and Cedar Falls, Iowa. The negative team of Mary Shafer and John Hess defeated Minneapolis Southwest, Hopkins I and Hopkins II.

In addition to winning the team trophy, Shafer and Hess were named the outstanding negative team in the tourney, and Hess was selected the outstanding tournament debater.

Two other Durand teams competed successfully at the same time in the Hopkins invitational. A team of first-year debaters entered in B division came through with a 6-0 record and took fourth place in the division.

The affirmatives, Barbara Heike and Donna Schober, defeated teams from Sibley, Minneapolis North and Kellogg. Mary McNaughton and Christine McNaughton, negative, won over Minnehaha, Blake and White Bear Lake.

A second unit was entered in the varsity division and emerged with a 5-1 record to capture third place. The affirmative team of Jane Bartholomew and Mary Spindler was defeated by Chippewa Falls and won over Minnetonka and Proctor. The negative pair, Kathy Forslund and Nancy Morey, defeated teams from Minnehaha, White Bear Lake and New Ulm.

Top scorer was Kathy Forslund with 28 speaker points, followed by Hess and Mary Spindler with 27 and Nancy Morey with 26.

Durand debaters take the Thanksgiving weekend off and return to the trail Dec. 4 when they attend the Chippewa Falls invitational.

Board Buys Flowers, Car

At its meeting Monday the Park-Recreation Board accepted bids on a new station wagon and on 1966 city park plantings.

Two bids were received on four-door six-cylinder 1966 station wagons. Owl Motor Co. was apparent low bidder with a price of $2,194 on a Ford. The bid was not after a trade-in allowance of $724 on the department's 1957 Plymouth.

The other bidder, Winona Auto Sales, offered a Dodge for a net of $2,488, after subtracting a $325 trade-in allowance.

Board members voted to accept the lower bid subject to the customary review of specifications by department administrative personnel.

A single bid, that of Siebrecht Floral Co., was received for flower plantings. Board members voted to accept the price of $892.50. Last year's low bid was $871.

The list of plantings includes: 475 red President cannas, 200 pink cannas, 285 salmon red cannas, 480 branched salvia, 110 bright variegated coleus, 550 vine roses, 500 scarlet geraniums, 45 orange lantana, 225 dwarf marigolds, 400 red petunias, 200 blue petunias, 40 fibrous rooted red begonias, 40 dwarf mixed impatiens, and 300 white sweet alyssum.

Delivery is specified between May 20 and 30.

Children Not Hurt In Bus Accident

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Fourteen children and the driver escaped serious injury Monday when a school bus turned over north of Waco.

L. Richard Rushing, 59, driver of the McClellan County bus, said he had pulled to the shoulder of a farm road two miles north of Waco when the slow-moving vehicle hit loose gravel and rolled over.

Nine youngsters were hospitalized but all were later released.

60 More Rose Bushes Expected

Lake Park rose gardens will be expanded to include at least another 60 bushes next year, according to Dr. C. A. Rohrer, president of the Park-Recreation Board.

The bushes are being furnished without cost by a California nursery, Dr. Rohrer said at the board's meeting Monday. At an estimated retail value of $3.50 each, the bushes would be worth $210, he said. Freight costs from California also are to be prepaid by the nursery. The new shipment will be made up of five varieties with 12 bushes in each, Dr. Rohrer reported.

Rose gardens at the park currently contain about 600 bushes. Most of these are experimental varieties, supplied by growers. In return, park personnel maintain plants, observe them and supply growers with reports on their characteristics and qualities.

These Decision Makers...and Thousands More Rely on Blue Cross!

"For more than 25 years the Minnesota Farm Bureau has looked to Blue Cross to serve our members in providing prepaid hospital care. Each year more than two million dollars is returned to our members to help pay hospital bills. Blue Cross benefits have played a major role in providing up-to-date care to our group of 18,000 subscribers."	"Employees of Minnesota Valley Breeders Association have had service from Blue Cross for 16 years. During the past three years, we have operated on a plan of cost, plus an administrative fee. As a result of an educational program, our 185 employees have cooperated in avoiding unnecessary hospital expense. Consequently there have been substantial refunds. These refunds are used as additional benefits for employees."	"Blue Cross has more than served our needs for over twenty years. Our experience has proven that we get more for our tax dollar than with any other insurance that we could find. A number of our people would be financially bankrupt if it weren't for Blue Cross. In one case over $10,000 was paid by Blue Cross, not to mention what was covered by MHI. Their excellent coverage, service, and willingness to cooperate in every way, has increased our confidence in Blue Cross every year."	"As a union representative of public employees from the Iron Range and Northeastern Minnesota, I have had a great deal of experience with hospital insurance coverage; and I have found that Blue Cross provides the most complete coverage at the most reasonable price for either group or individual contracts with the least amount of administrative expense or problems to the subscriber, the hospitals or to Blue Cross itself."

Selecting a health care plan is a responsibility that weighs heavily on those persons who must make the decision.

What is the reputation and stature of the company?

Share in the Joy of Thanksgiving Day

ON THANKSGIVING DAY the average American family comes together from far and near, frequently joined by relatives and in-laws, and sits down to enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner of roast turkey and all the "trimmings." It is at this moment, observing a most admirable custom handed down to us from over three centuries ago by the Pilgrim Fathers, that the average American family pauses to give thanks for the blessings received during the past year.

On such a festive occasion, and before tables heaped and groaning with good things, it is just about impossible to comprehend the fact that three-quarters of the world's inhabitants are tragic victims of those ancient and still-unconquered enemies of mankind: Hunger, poverty, ignorance and disease.

FORTUNATELY, however, just as on the first Thanksgiving Day the Pilgrims with charity and compassion invited the neighboring Indians to share their first harvest with them, Americans of this generation continue to share their bounty with others.

Today, American generosity reaches out help to every corner of the free world where there is need — to fetid slums in Latin America, to disease-infested villages of Africa's steaming jungles, to the deprived and struggling peoples of Asia.

In the true spirit of Thanksgiving Day, American generosity is helping to feed and clothe the world's destitute millions and assisting them to attain human dignity and self-respect. An outstanding example of this praiseworthy year-round American benevolence is the continued support given to the annual Thanksgiving Clothing Campaign conducted by the Catholic bishops of the United States.

USED OR UNWANTED but still usable clothing, footwear, blankets and bed linens donated to the 17th Annual Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Campaign will be distributed to millions of needy persons, entirely without regard to race, religion or color, in areas of misery and want throughout the world by Catholic Relief Services, the overseas aid agency of the American bishops and laity.

Is there somewhere in your house, taking up closet space, a dress that is out of style, a suit you no longer care for, shoes that the children have out-grown, or extra blankets and bed linen? These articles can protect and bring comfort to a homeless refugee family from Red China living huddled together in a miserable hovel in Hong Kong or Macao; cover the nakedness of a helpless little Vietnamese war orphan; shield the torn feet of a Latin American peasant from the blistering heat of the sun-scorched earth; put a clean sheet on the bed of an expectant mother laboring to bring forth a new life in some make-shift clinic deep in the African bush.

SHARE IN THE JOY of Thanksgiving Day by sharing the harvest of your good fortune with the less-fortunate overseas. Send or bring a bundle of serviceable used clothing to the nearest Catholic church or rectory. This year, emphasize the giving in Thanksgiving. Your Thanksgiving Day will be the happier for having done so.

They Bounty Hunt For Shoplifters

(La Crosse Tribune)

A DEPARTMENT store in a Rochester shopping center may have come up with an idea that other retailers could use to reduce the growing scourge of shoplifting.

This store had watched its shoplifting losses mount steadily. About a month ago, it offered a reward of $5 to its employees for each shoplifter spotted.

The system has worked so well, the store manager said, that employees are catching about one out of two shoplifters now, compared to a national average of one in ten. One clerk came in on his day off, and nabbed four shoplifters in one day. He netted $20 — more than his pay on a working day.

This is one part of the store's new policy. The other part is turning every thief over to the police, no matter what his story or what the age.

CHILDREN as young as eight years old have been turned over, presumably for a stern lecture and further discipline by their parents.

Modern stores with their vast stacks of merchandise on open display and fewer sales personnel, are easy targets for shoplifters, particularly the amateur variety. The Rochester store found it was losing hundreds of dollars a month. It estimated that about half of its 45 rpm phonograph records were being stolen.

By catching the beginning shoplifter and letting him face the police or a court, the store not only is cutting down a business cost which is getting outrageous in many lines these days.

IT ALSO is persuading a lot of lawbreakers that crime really doesn't pay, before they get in too deep.

Thousands Visit Kennedy Grave

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—In two years President John F. Kennedy has become a legend, if not a myth.

Day by day hundreds of people, sometimes thousands, make a pilgrimage to the Arlington Cemetery grave of this witty, graceful, articulate, almost boyish president who was assassinated at 46 Nov. 22, 1963.

To millions here and abroad he has become a shining figure, perhaps because of his unspoiled enthusiasm a symbol of what they hope for in the future, either for themselves or mankind.

He meant different things to different people and thus in different ways was the image of what they would like to be: Intelligent, rich, successful, good-looking, or concerned about people.

BUT NOW, AFTER two years, it might be asked as it is bound to be asked in the years ahead:

Of all those who revere his memory, how many can say that they have any real recollection of what he did as president to earn this devotion? Perhaps not many, for their emotions are mixed up with memory.

A few episodes of his presidency are easily remembered.

The first was a disaster, which he honestly acknowledged, when he let Cuban exiles invade their homeland only to perish on the beaches at the Bay of Pigs because the American forces did not back them up.

THERE WAS his great triumph when he faced down Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the Cuban missile crisis. The one was the great peak of his three White House years, the other was his great valley.

In between were all the other days of his presidency. All of them had life and spirit but his accomplishments were hardly distinguished enough to rate him among the great presidents or even the near great.

He was no match for President Johnson, for instance, in getting Congress to do his will, although in fairness it must be remembered Johnson has had a far greater percentage of his own Democrats there to work with than Kennedy had.

Congress ignored Kennedy on some of his biggest proposals: A civil rights law, medical care for people 65 and older, federal aid to public elementary schools. Johnson got them.

IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS, it seems fair to say, the attitude abroad toward this country was better under Kennedy than under Johnson, although here again the magic of his personality was probably more the reason than anything he did.

By getting involved in the Dominican Republic revolt and deeply involved in the Vietnamese war Johnson has antagonized many here and abroad. But in both cases, certainly in Viet Nam, Kennedy would almost surely have done the same.

Kennedy was building up U.S. military forces in Viet Nam, and this country was steadily getting more directly involved by the time Kennedy died, although Viet Nam was crumbling. Finally, to stop it, Johnson did what he is doing now.

'MAN, YOU AIN'T LEARNED THE ART OF SURVIVAL'

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Wallace Lived to See His Dreams Come True

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Henry Wallace is remembered around Washington for a lot of little things — how he threw an Australian boomerang en route to work every morning, how he got up at 5 a.m. to work in his vegetable garden, how he got so much exercise during the day that he sometimes dozed after diplomatic dinners in the evening, how he expressed his confidential view of every cabinet member in his private letters to a New York astrologist. He called FDR "The Flaming One" which the President liked, and "The Chatterbox" which he didn't like.

BUT HISTORY, which takes a longer view of man's accomplishments than society gossip, will note that no man, except for Franklin Roosevelt, did more to mold current history than the man who served eight years as secretary of agriculture, four years as vice president, and two years as secretary of commerce.

The chief chapters of history which Henry Wallace molded were:

1. The technical revolution of the farm.
2. The prediction that moderate forces in Russia would win out over extreme forces and eventually make for better understanding between the Soviet and the United States.

It was Henry Wallace's technical revolution of agriculture which led to the huge crop surpluses and our present ability to feed a large part of the world. Though we haven't always used our surpluses effectively, American farm production has become a potent weapon for peace.

Wallace was once hooted for advocating what his critics called "a quart of milk for every Hotentot." But the day came when we sent powdered milk in vast quantities to Africa—thanks to Henry's farm revolution.

HENRY LEFT the Truman cabinet because he disagreed drastically with Jimmy Byrnes, then secretary of state, on U.S.-Russian policy. Wallace belonged to the Cabinet group which believed that the peace of the world lay with continued USA-USSR understanding.

We were then allies of the Soviet; and Roosevelt, Wallace, Harry Hopkins, Henry Morgenthau and Henry L. Stimson, then secretary of war and a Republican, believed that it was all-important to continue friendly relations.

Another clique in the Cabinet led by Byrnes, James Forrestal, Averell Harriman — who later changed his mind — plus some of the military leaders, began playing up to Germany. They maintained it was foolhardy to talk of permanent understanding with Russia, that our future lay with Germany.

BUT WALLACE foresaw the day when the hard-nosed communism of the Bolshevik revolution would give way to moderate socialism. He saw the day when the satellite countries of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, would ease away from Moscow.

This was what caused his final exit from the Truman Cabinet. In September, 1944, he wrote a critical letter to President Truman taking vigorous exception to the anti-Russian policies of Secretary of State Byrnes. As Henry Wallace died last week, the Russians were being blasted by the Chinese extremists for following too moderate a policy and being too friendly with the United States; while the satellite nations, now semi-independent, had become more and more friendly toward the United States.

Henry had been quite ill for some weeks and probably didn't know that his predictions of 20 years ago was coming true.

Three African nations have approached the United States and Russia with a plan for an African expeditionary force against white Rhodesia.

THIS STARTLING proposal was made by the Ethiopian, Nigerian, and Ghanaian ambassadors to the United Nations, who last week sounded out U.S. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg and Soviet Ambassador Nikolai Fedorenko.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Prospects for 1966 Analyzed

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON — Looking over the prospects for 1966 and the Congressional elections a year from now, Democratic strategists are increasingly fearful of a major setback. Without the magnetic pull of Lyndon Baines Johnson at the head of the ticket, they see the big administration majorities from the 1964 landslide badly mauled.

These forebodings come out of careful study of the scattered election returns this year but, even more important, from a growing awareness of the swampy ground ahead for the party in power. Two quagmires that promise difficult and dangerous going — the deepening war in Viet Nam and the conflict and confusion in the poverty program — are especially worrisome.

The political consequences of a ground war in Asia involving several hundred thousand American troops, with a more and more vociferous opposition demanding a quick victory by expanded bombing, are unpredictable. But the spin-off from the tug of war between the big city bosses and the poverty managers with notions about how the show must be run is already evident.

The reverberations are loud in the big city states where Democratic organizations are fractured and weary with the ancient pattern of payoff showing through. Four states — New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and California — are being put on the Democrats' intensive care list. Illinois may also come in for special treatment as Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley breathes defiance at the poverty specialists and the civil rights leaders who demand an end of de facto segregation in the public schools.

THESE ARE THE key states in a nationwide election and what happens in these great fiefdoms in '66 is therefore of the utmost importance for 1968. Of the five, California, the richest and the most populous, is considered to be in the most critical condition. For there the menacing threat is a right-wing takeover under the persuasion of an actor now having a public relations reconditioning from Goldwaterism to a plausible moderation.

Ronald Reagan seems at this point almost certain to win the Republican nomination for governor. He has a powerful organization behind him with unlimited money and he is already far ahead of a scattered field of comparatively unknown contenders. The question then is whether Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, running for a third term, can defeat Reagan. California Democrats are engaged in fratricidal warfare. The party, if indeed it can be called a party, is made up of warring tribes determined to do each other in. The California's Democratic clubs on the left have just frustrated Brown's effort to purge their leader. And the governor's old rival, Jesse Unruh, from his power position in the state legislature, is breathing doubt and distrust.

IN LOS ANGELES, Mayor Sam Yorty threatens to get into the Democratic primary which would damage Brown even though he won. Little or nothing has been done to transform the ugly situation left in the aftermath of the Watts riot. With the Negroes reported sullen and resentful, the white population is fearful of a repeat.

Adding up this political arithmetic, the answer for the Democrats would seem to be a goose egg. They take hope from the fact that the Republicans are also split a half dozen ways. And they add that in the clutch good old Pat always comes through no matter how bumbling and uncertain he may look right up to the last two weeks of the election campaign. In the showdown, the voters will decide not for Brown but against Reagan. And despite the care of the Reagan handlers, he breaks away now and then, as he did recently in calling for more bombing in North Viet Nam to reduce the country to a parking lot and let the boys come home by Christmas.

Points to Rolvaag's Political Appointments To the Editor:

Some days ago your paper carried an informative news article regarding the establishment of a statewide public defender system. The article was accurate as well as interesting. However, the people in this area might like to know some additional facts surrounding the establishment of this program.

Two bills were introduced in the legislature on the subject. One was the creation of the public defender system and the second bill changed the method of appointing members to the Judicial Council. The second bill was for the purpose of taking the power of political appointment out of the public defender system to be created by the first bill.

Governor Rolvaag saw fit to veto the second bill so that he could take political control under a system designed for the benefit of all indigent people. He has since made his political appointments contrary to the intent of the legislature to leave the legal judgment of appointment up to the State Supreme Court as the Supreme Court asked us to do. Rep. Clinton J. Hall Rushford, Minn.

second state, Democratic strategists along with most observers write off John V. Lindsay's victory in the New York City mayoralty race as a personal triumph having next to nothing to do with party. While it may be whistling past the graveyard, they say that Frank O'Connor, who ran 199,000 votes ahead of Lindsay for president of the City Council and swamped Lindsay's candidate, can defeat Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Supreme Court Will Rule on Right to Lawyer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has agreed to spell out its 1964 ruling that a suspect's right to a lawyer's advice applies in a police station as well as in a courtroom.

That landmark decision, issued in the case of Danny Escobedo, left some confusion in its wake. Escobedo had asked to see his lawyer before confessing to murdering his brother-in-law; his lawyer was in the police station trying to see him.

Because police kept the two apart the Supreme Court threw out the Illinois conviction.

Left unanswered by the court's 1964 ruling were several questions, among them: Does the right to counsel apply even if the suspect does not ask to see a lawyer? Are the police required to advise a suspect of this right? What if he can't afford a lawyer?

Late Monday, after an afternoon conference, the justices agreed to hear four cases that raised these and other questions.

One of the cases gives the court the opportunity to say if the Escobedo ruling is retroactive. If it is, scores of confessions obtained when the suspects were without counsel could be voided and convictions based on them thrown out.

As matters stand now, the two largest states, New York and California, are in direct conflict.

The New York Court of Appeals has ruled that police do not have to advise a suspect of his right to remain silent and of his right to have a lawyer before taking his confession.

The California Supreme Court has reversed a conviction because the defendant had not been told of these rights. The Sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution says, "In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right . . . to have the assistance of counsel for his defense."

This right was slow in seeping down to the state level.

Widow Awarded $740,000 in Husband's Death

NEW YORK (AP)—A widow has been awarded $740,000 for loss of her husband, who died of a heart attack brought on by fright.

On May 7, 1958, in Whitestone, Queens, a car smashed through the front lawn of Salvatore Capossela, 53, and almost rammed into the house where he and his wife, Catherine, were sitting by a window.

Going outside to talk to the driver, Capossela experienced pains in his arms and chest. Returning to the house, he collapsed and was dead 45 minutes later.

The award to the widow was made over the weekend by State Supreme Court Justice Nicholas M. Pette. The award was retroactive to the date of the man's death, plus interest charges, and based on his earning capacity as a toolmaker.

Defendants in the negligence suit were Bruce Kelley, 19 at the time of the accident, and his mother, Mary F. Kelley, owner of the car.

Deaths of 3 At Michigan Hospital Puzzle

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) —

Federal and state investigators are trying to determine what caused the post-surgery deaths of two children and a young mother at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

The three patients died within 24 hours of one another last Thursday and Friday. The hospital disclosed the deaths Monday.

Harry Whitlow, administrator of the hospital, said in a formal statement:

"All three patients received medications which appeared to have been faulty."

Whitlow did not identify the medications. He said all three received the same anesthesia. He said other patients had received the anesthesia without ill effects although there were complications in one case.

Whitlow said surgical methods were not to blame.

One investigation is being made by agents of the Federal Food and Drug Administration. Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson, who said it was incredible that he had not been informed earlier of the deaths, also ordered an inquiry. He invited police assistance.

The dead were Lurea Covington, 24, Pontiac, mother of two; Kimberley Ann Brunel, 8, West Bloomfield Township, and William Michael Ketchum, 13, Ferndale.

Bronson said he would seek court permission to exhume the bodies of Mrs. Covington and Kimberley. They were buried Monday. William's funeral has been postponed.

A death certificate filed with the city said Kimberley died of a cardiac arrest — a heart stoppage — with pulmonary edema as a secondary cause. Cause of death for William and Mrs. Covington was listed as pulmonary edema, a lung swelling.

"The question is," said one doctor, "what caused the arrest or the edema?"

Mrs. Covington and Kimberley died after appendectomies, William after an operation for a hernia.

The hospital anesthesiologist, Dr. Lloyd Goodwin, said he had been instructed not to discuss the deaths. However, he said there had been trouble in the recovery room in two of the deaths.

Baby Crop Declines

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's baby crop continued to decline through September.

Only an estimated 333,000 babies were born in September, the Public Health Service reported Monday. This is down from 356,000 in September 1964. The birth rate for September was 20.8 per 1,000 population, compared with 22.6 a year earlier.

The cumulative total for the first nine months of 1965 was 2,830,000, compared with 3,042,000 for the similar 1964 months, a decline of 7 per cent.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham, says immorality is increasing on college campuses and the new campus code may be tomorrow's national standard of morality.

Speaking before a crowd of almost 40,000 in the domed stadium at Houston Monday night, he also said:

Meg Splashes Through N.Y. Rain and Cold

NEW YORK (AP) — Princess Margaret splashed through rain and cold Monday plugging British trade, then, her royal duties done, she donned black lace and satin shoes for a whirlwind of private parties and midnight pancakes.

Thirty-five bluebloods of the theatrical world, including Ethel Merman, Jerome Robbins, Tony Perkins, Barbra Streisand and Sybil Burton Christopher, came to the pancake party hosted by Broadway producer Harold Prince and his wife, Judy, in their six-story townhouse.

Prince and his wife joined the princess and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon, and actor Perkins for an intimate champagne dinner beforehand at the apartment of Sharmen Douglas, daughter of a former U.S. ambassador to the Court of St. James.

Earlier, the royal couple sipped cocktails with 300 guests at a reception in the private Colony Club. Former U.S. ambassador to Britain, Winthrop Aldrich, was the host.

Climbing into her gray-green Rolls-Royce at 1 a.m., the princess snuggled under a heavy lap blanket, waved to onlookers and, when asked if she had a good time, smiled and nodded a happy "Yes."

She and Lord Snowdon stayed overnight and planned to spend today, their last full day here, on the rolling 500-acre Long Island estate of her host, John Hay Whitney, former U.S. ambassador to Britain and publisher of the New York Herald Tribune.

The royal couple and their party leave Wednesday for Bermuda en route to London.

Amblyopia Project in City Considered by PTA Council

The search for amblyopia as a possible project was discussed at the Monday evening meeting of the City PTA Council in the teachers' dining room at Winona Senior High School.

SHERMAN A. Mitchell, principal of Jefferson Elementary School, who presented the idea, quoted from an article in Today's Health magazine, in which it was stated that amblyopia is one of the leading causes of partial blindness in children.

It is the result of arrested development in one eye causing the child to suppress the image of his weak eye, and in so doing he stops it from developing. If the condition is discovered by the age of six it is almost 100 per cent correctable, Mr. Sherman pointed out.

The project would require the training of volunteers to do a screening test to discover children who might need a doctor's examination. There will be further investigation of this as a possible PTA Council city-wide project at the January meeting.

Mrs. Jean Hagen and Mrs. William Lindquist gave tips on publicity to the members. They told the group of the various methods available to them in the newspaper and radio.

"GET NEWS articles in promptly," said Mrs. Hagen, representing the Winona Daily News. "Nothing is less interesting than four or five-day-old news." She gave publicity chairmen a few rules to remember in writing articles for the paper.

Mrs. Lindquist, women's director of Radio Station KAGE told of the various programs scheduled which can be used for publicity purposes.

"We are always willing to work with you to provide publicity suitable to your needs," she said. She too urged promptness in sending in news and accuracy of detail.

MRS. DONALD Hittner, president, spoke briefly on the importance of placing the PTA Magazine where it is available to parents who do not yet have children in school. "I would like to see this magazine in waiting rooms, beauty shops, and on news stands," she said.

Early dismissal during storm alerts was discussed. It was decided that each unit should take the problem up with its members and report on it for possible action at the January meeting.

Also on the program was Miss Kathy Menten, a sophomore nurse from the College of Saint Teresa, who played the guitar and lead the group in singing of such favorites as, "Home On the Range," "Yellow Rose of Texas" and "Down in the Valley."

U.S. Surveyor Project Delayed

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Technical problems have caused another postponement in the U.S. Surveyor project, an attempt to soft-land a television camera on the moon. The launching, originally set for 1963, has been delayed several times by difficulties which have resulted in congressional investigations.

A spokesman at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory said Monday the launch couldn't take place until at least May 1966. It had been scheduled for February.

The 2,300-pound Surveyors are designed to televise close-up pictures after they land on the lunar surface.

At least three Soviet attempts to lower instruments gently to the moon's surface have failed.

Soldiers Watch English Prison

DURHAM, England (AP) — Armed soldiers patrolled the corridors of Durham Jail today to thwart a reported plot to kidnap key men in the great train-robbery gang.

Underworld sources in London said a gang had organized a private army to make an attempt on the jail this week.

In a move unprecedented in peacetime, the government ordered a regiment of infantrymen to take charge of the top security wing at Durham where at least three of the train robbers are held. They were members of a gang which ambushed a Glasgow-London mail train in August 1963 and escaped with more than $7 million in untraceable cash. Less than a tenth of the loot has been recovered, and three known leaders of the gang have never been caught.

Germans Like U.S. Turkeys

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — U. S. imported turkey meat is becoming increasingly popular among German consumers as a Yuletide delicacy. That was confirmed by Max Neumann, president of the German Association of Egg and Poultry Wholesalers. Neumann said that diet-consciousness is the main reason for the growing popularity. The country's traditional Christmas dish is a fat roasted goose but more and more Germans turn to the lean turkey.

lands given to the city are now worth millions, he stated. In response to a question, Streator said the south part of Latsch Island is occupied by the city under a fee deed with a condition. It is owned by the Chicago & North Western Railway, he said. So long as the city operates a free bathing beach there, it retains possession. If the beach is discontinued, possession reverts to the railroad, he said. There is no time limit involved.

Bringing members back to the motion, Indall called for a vote, which was unanimous for adoption of the program proposal.

IT IS PART of the plan, said Indall, to call in city department heads for discussion of municipal functions. However, he said, it might be well to tell them in advance what topics the commission wished to cover. This would allow individuals to make preparations, he said, without having to cover areas in which the commission has little or no interest.

Beatty objected that commissioners might not know what questions to ask until the officials had spoken first. Streator asked whether Indall meant to limit discussion. Indall said he did not but that such details as the total length of sewer mains installed under city engineering supervision would be irrelevant, for example. Questioning need not be restricted but pertinent areas of information should be marked out to some extent, he said.

SECURING Informal agreement, the president named Mrs. Virginia Torgerson, James Foster, Steve Morgan and Steve Sadowski to a committee which would define the fields to be explored. The committee was requested to report in January, when its proposals will be reviewed by the full commission.

To a committee for studying structure and composition of Winona city government, Indall appointed Mrs. John Woodworth, Dan Tralnor Jr., Theurer, Streator and Wildgrube. Hopefully the group will report in February.

The powers of government as delegated under home rule charters will be studied by a committee composed of the commission's four lawyer members. They are: Mrs. Torgerson, Beatty, Streator and Duane Peterson. The group was asked to report in January.

OPTION

tween 20 and 25 acres should be acquired to allow for construction of a building to serve immediate needs and to provide for possible future expansion.

LYING to the west of the Winona Management property is acreage owned by Arthur Noeske, estimated to cover between 40 and 50 or more acres.

It's likely that the board, if it purchases the Winona Management strip would then negotiate with Noeske for purchase of the additional area needed for the new school.

Santelman said that as yet no formal negotiations have been made with Noeske for purchase of any of his property for the vocational - technical school.

Noeske had been spoken to informally previously when the board was considering a site for the new Senior High School building and the Siebrecht's area location was under consideration as a possible site.

There have been subsequent conversations with Noeske, Santelman said, but from them has come nothing definite as to a willingness to sell or a probable price to be asked.

BOARD MEMBERS agreed Monday that negotiations should first be completed with Winona Management on the 16.46 acres and then action could be taken on the acquisition of the necessary additional property.

Santelman, during the discussion of the option contract, referred to Christensen's interest in retaining a portion of the tract and asked whether it might be possible to suggest to the owner that the board first acquire the entire tract and then, after negotiations have been completed for the purchase of all of the remaining property needed, any portion the board feels is not necessary for school purposes could be sold back to the owner at the original sale price.

DIRECTOR-at-Large David F. Wynne said that he thought that Christensen's reason for wishing to retain a portion of the tract would be the most important consideration.

"If he wants it just as a buffer," Wynne commented, "we could assure him that we wouldn't put the school on that portion and I should think that would satisfy him. If, however, he wants to put up houses there, that would be another matter."

Directors decided that issues involved could be resolved in the negotiation of the option contract and the resolution authorizing Santelman to take this action was adopted.

No deadline for exercise of an option was stated but the board was advised that Christensen reportedly would like to have the purchase, if it is made, finalized by the first of next year. The board could see no reason from its standpoint why this couldn't be done.

ATTENDING the meeting was W. Wayne Smith of the firm of W-Smith Architectural & Engineering Services which is drafting plans and specifications for the new school.

Smith submitted sketches he had prepared of the Siebrecht's area showing possible locations for the new school.

In another property matter, this one associated with the Senior High School project, Brosnahan reported that agreement had been reached for the purchase of another parcel of property on the high school site near the west end of Lake Winona. Attorneys previously had been authorized by the board to enter into purchase agreements with property owner and Brosnahan said that such an agreement had been reached with Charles Knopp for purchase of a parcel at $3,024. He said that this amount represented the appraised price, plus 15 percent, which was in accordance with the previous board authorization.

Formal agreement on the parcel was voted by directors.

Labor Bill for $22.50 Studied

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — The Ramsey County commissioners are pondering a labor bill for $22.50.

It's from No. 22496 at Stillwater Prison who as Arnold J. Johnson was held earlier in the county jail here.

He says sheriff's deputies, accusing him of scribbling his initials on the walls of his cell, made him scrub the walls.

He said he did this work against his will, but that he will settle for $7.50 an hour for the three hours he spent at it. Otherwise, Johnson writes the county dads, he will proceed against the county under the state civil service law.

Lack of Funds Threat to Tomah, La Crosse Job

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Gov. Warren P. Knowles said today a "disappointing" total of $108.6 million will be made available for road improvement in Wisconsin next year.

The figure about matches appropriations this year and again will force construction to "lag well behind substantial upward trends in traffic," the chief executive said.

Knowles told a news conference about $8 million more in federal funds for interstate road construction had been anticipated. The state will get a total of $47.2 million in federal funds, but only $24.7 million of it is earmarked for interstate construction.

"This means that many essential and justifiable projects throughout the state must again be deferred," the governor said.

The $108.6 million total for road improvement is up from the $106.8 million allotted this year. But Knowles said the increase is mainly due to $2 million pledged by Milwaukee County to advance urban projects.

The governor said examples of priority projects slowed by insufficient funds include the Eau Claire - Tomah - La Crosse sections of Interstate 90, the Butte des Morts bridge on U.S. 41, the U.S. 53 improvement at Chippewa Falls, the U.S. 51 beltline at Stevens Point, Highway 15 and U.S. 12 in the southeast, and U.S. 141 in Sheboygan and Ozaukee counties.

The $108.6 million available to the 1966 program includes $85.7 million for construction, $12.8 million for engineering and right-of-way acquisitions, and $5 million in federal matching funds for county projects.

The construction figure includes $55.4 million for state trunk highways, together with federal aid county and urban projects, and $30.3 million for interstate development of the interstate total, $19.4 million is designated for Milwaukee County and $10.8 million for Eau Claire, La Crosse and JACKSON counties.

Wisconsin was allotted 459 miles of interstate road when the program began under the Eisenhower administration. To date, 308 miles have been completed.

The only interstate project scheduled for completion in 1966 is a 15-mile stretch of 194 and 1894 through southwestern Milwaukee County. The construction is the closing link in a super road between Madison and Chicago.

Major work for 1966 includes projects on beltline routes for U.S. 41 at Green Bay, U.S. 141 at Sheboygan and U.S. 10 at Waupaca.

Projects are scheduled for Highway 113 and U.S. 12 at Madison, Highway 60 in Dodge County, Highway 23 in Green Lake County, U.S. 141 in Ozaukee County, Highway 38 in Racine-Waukesha counties, Highway 10 and 114 in Appleton, U.S. 151 in Manitowish, Highway 97 in Marshfield-Stratford, Highway 65 in St. Croix County, U.S. 8 in Forest County, U.S. 2 and 53 east of Superior, Highway 47 east of Hayward, Highway 77 in Oneida County, and Highway 37 in Eau Claire County.

Other important work is slated for U.S. 51 in Marquette.

Wabasha Jury Hearing Case Against Youth

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — The case against Gary Lacey, 15, Minneapolis, may be completed in Wabasha County District Court today, Judge Donald T. Franke is presiding.

Lacey is charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle. Dan Foley, Wabasha, was appointed to represent him. John McHardy, county attorney, is prosecuting.

FIRST WITNESS this morning was John Gerken, 67, Lake City, who lives near Lake City Municipal Hospital. He said that on Sept. 6 about 10 a.m. he saw two boys walking past his house. Later they had crossed the street and were walking on the other side.

He said he saw them get into the 1963 model car of John Heins, hospital employee, in the hospital parking lot. He said they drove north and east on Highway 61.

Mrs. Gerken told the same story for the state. Both said Lacey was one of the boys who walked by their house and got into the car.

Heins testified that he was late for work this Labor Day and left his keys in the car. Later he was notified of the theft of his car by the Gerkens. He called Clyde Oliver, city policeman, and gave him the license number and description.

The car was located Sept. 8 at Hastings. Heins was called there. He said a tire was damaged, and there was a red plaid jacket and a package of cigarettes in the vehicle.

ALLEN JOHN Nodes, Hastings policeman, testified he had recognized the car from radio reports and pursued it onto a gravel street onto which the driver had turned from Highway 61. The car went out of control and a left rear tire blew, he said.

He testified the two boys emerged from the vehicle, ran 25 yards, and then split. Under cross-examination Nodes said Lacey was not the driver.

Lee Stokes of the Highway Patrol went on the witness stand at noon.

Choice Hunting at Choice
Probably this group of Spring Grove, Minn., hunters had the highest ratio of success of any large group during the recent three-day season in Southeastern Minnesota. They got ten deer for ten hunters. They hunted in the Choice area of Fillmore County, just off State Highway 43.

Despite the general conclusion that hunting pressure was definitely down in Southeastern Minnesota and the number of deer harvested will probably run about the same as that in nearby Wisconsin, where registration is required and was about 90 percent lower than a year ago, the license sale will be equal or greater.

Richard Schoonover, Winona County auditor, and his agents throughout the county, sold 3,087 licenses this year compared with 3,086 last year, or one less. Data from other area counties probably will reveal a similar volume of sales compared with that of 1964.

Wisconsin Hunting
Wisconsin hunters will settle down to the Indian method of hunting for remainder of the season in near-by counties where the season runs through Sunday. It is bucks only with horns three inches or longer, which means the hunter must get a good look at the deer. This means that drives are pretty much out, and it is stalking along a trail—waiting for the big buck with the large set of antlers to walk gracefully past.

Game biologists in Western Wisconsin, where the estimated kill for the first weekend was down as much as 40 percent, don't think the decrease was due to the lack of deer but rather to conditions prevailing. It was hazy, low visibility and there was no snow. A year ago, when there was big harvest, there was snow and nearly perfect hunting conditions.

A factor that has not been mentioned much is that the big flood on the Mississippi, Chippewa and the tributary rivers last spring may have taken a heavier toll of white-tail than was recorded at the time. All the bottomlands were submerged. The whole Tiffany Public Hunting Grounds with the exception of a few high areas, was submerged. Along the Mississippi it was highway-to-highway area of water. The area remained flooded for a quite long period. It could explain the decrease of deer in the bottomlands.

Nice weather made hunting a pleasure for the vast majority of hunters. They enjoyed it in the woods. Hunting lunches were eaten leisurely. The percentage of camping groups was definitely up. We encountered a modern camp of six colored hunters from Milwaukee deep in the Tiffany area. Apparently this area's publicity resulted in hunters coming here from some distance. It was hard hunting there with dense cover and water underfoot.

Your Social Security

Q. If I take reduced widow's benefits at age 60, will it be increased to the full rate when I reach 62?

A. No. The amount of your benefit will remain the same, unless you did not receive benefits for all months before you are 62. In this case, your benefit will be adjusted at 62 to take these months into account.

Q. How will the financing of the supplementary medical insurance work?

A. People enrolling in the medical insurance benefit program will pay a $3 monthly premium, which is matched by the federal government. These premium payments will be placed in a separate supplementary medical insurance trust fund and the money will be used only for medical insurance benefit payments.

Being at Still Not Enough for Conviction, Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court struck down Monday a federal law that made a person's unexplained presence at an illegal still sufficient evidence to convict him of possessing the still.

Unless some function in connection with the still is proved mere presence "is too tenuous to permit a reasonable inference of guilt," Justice Byron R. White said in announcing the court's unanimous decision.

"It may be, of course, that Congress has the power to make presence at an illegal still a punishable crime," White said. "But we find no clear indication that it intended to so exercise this power."

In the case at hand, White said "presence tells us only that the defendant was there and very likely played a part in the illicit scheme."

"But presence tells us nothing about what the defendant's specific function was and carries no legitimate, rational or reasonable inference that he was engaged in one of the specialized functions connected with possession, rather than in one of the supply, delivery or operational activities having nothing to do with possession."

'Whoever Is Best, That's for Me!' Shouts Clay

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, having made good on his boast to skin "The Rabbit" — Floyd Patterson — said today he would be willing to take on Ernie Terrell within three months "if he's the best man and the public wants it."

"Whoever is the best man — that's for me," shouted the triumphant Clay, or Muhammad Ali, following his one-sided, one-knockdown, technical knockout over the game, back-injured Patterson in 2:18 of the 12th round at Convention Center Monday night.

Referee Harry Krause stopped the slaughter with the 30-year-old, former two-time champion still on his feet although his face was battered and swollen and his legs seemed ready to go under him at any second. But he had been down only from a knockdown in the sixth round.

"I wanted to stop it a round earlier — it was hurting me to watch," said the referee, who called in Dr. Donald Romeo after the 11th round. "I said to Floyd 'Between you and me, and man to man, would you like to continue?' He said he wanted to continue."

Patterson, in obvious pain despite having been given two spinal injections after the fight, said he developed muscle spasms in his back in the third round. He apologized to the American public for not having put up a better fight against the all-conquering Clay.

"I am very sorry about what happened tonight," he said. "I had hoped to give Americans a better fight. Unfortunately I was not able to do so."

"I am not going to use my back as an excuse," he said. He had only praise for the victor.

"Mr. Clay can become a great fighter," he said. "He needs more experience. I don't think he benefitted much from tonight except perhaps in confidence."

"Everyone says Terrell is the best," said Clay. "If he's the best, then I want him."

If he fights Terrell — and Madison Square Garden's Harry

Markson said he'd like to put it on in New York — it would help clear up the heavyweight mud-dle although the 23-year-old Louisville Lip generally is regarded as the king of them all.

Clay and Patterson both posted $50,000 bond agreements that

Spartans Tighten Position

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan State's powerful Spartans tightened their grip on the No. 1 position in The Associated Press poll today and moved closer to the national college football championship.

They were so impressive in beating Notre Dame last Saturday 12-3 that they were named top team on 34 of the 43 ballots of a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

It was the most impressive showing of the year.

Undeclared Arkansas got the remaining nine nominations and held second place, with Nebraska, also unbeaten and untied, continuing as the third member of the year's Big Three.

Another poll will be staged after this week's few remaining games and the final balloting, determining the national championship, will be held after the bowl games on New Year's Day.

Sauldsberry Seeking to End Exile

BOSTON (AP) — Woody Sauldsberry, the National Basketball Association's 1957 Rookie of the Year while with Philadelphia, is seeking relief in court to end a two-year exile from the league.

The 31-year-old Sauldsberry filed an antitrust suit in U.S. District Court Monday against NBA President J. Walter Kennedy and all league clubs except the Boston Celtics.

Judge George C. Sweeney set a hearing for Wednesday morning on the 6-foot-7 forward's petition for a temporary injunction ordering the Celtics to honor a contract and barring any conspiracy by Kennedy and other NBA players to keep him from playing.

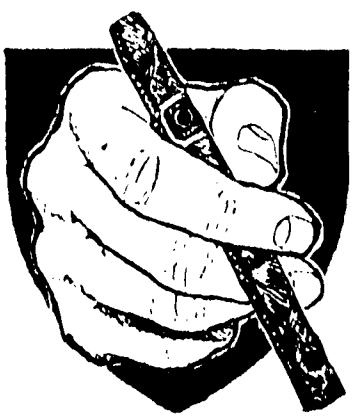

Sauldsberry contended in his suit that the Celtics signed him to an $11,000 contract last Thursday, but are unable to play him because Kennedy refused to accept the contract.

He claims in the suit that Kennedy and NBA clubs other than the Celtics have conspired to prevent him from earning a livelihood as a pro basketball player.

Forfeits to Cost State '65 Title

WINONA STATE COLLEGE is not — or rather, probably will not be — the Northern Intercollegiate Conference baseball champion for 1965.

That is the result of a meeting of league baseball coaches and subsequent balloting by NIC athletic directors.

Winona supposedly had won the conference last spring with a 7-2 record. A doubleheader against Mankato had been rained out and one of three games with Bemidji ended in a tie after 13 innings.

Most people, figuring the NIC would follow patterns set by the MIAC in the state and also the Big Ten, claimed the title for Winona. St. Cloud was second at 8-4.

But Mankato's Jean McCarthy was of a different opinion. He felt the Warriors should have made up the rained out doubleheader with the Indians.

This goes back to a long and complicated story that saw McCown tell McCarthy he couldn't make up the games on May 18 because of a commitment to La Crosse. Then La Crosse canceled the Winona game because of a makeup doubleheader with River Falls.

What it all boils down to is this: McCarthy pressed for forfeiture of the Winona games because the Warriors later played in the NAIA playoff. He won his point last weekend when conference coaches and athletic directors got together.

The baseball coaches recommended that the games be forfeited. Athletic directors then voted 5-1 (Winona's Bob Campbell the only dissenter) to forfeit the games. Nothing was said of Winona's tie with Bemidji.

Perhaps it isn't important, but we'd like to remind league officials that Bemidji was asked whether it could return to Winona to complete the game. It was reported that Bemidji officials said it would be financially impossible for the team to do so.

This was Winona's reason for not returning to Mankato.

"As far as I'm concerned, Mankato has been trying to win some way or other in baseball for 18 years," said McCown. "If this is the way they want to do it, fine."

According to McCown, the Indians have not won a series from Winona for 18 years — until this year, of course, if you're ready to count that.

There is something else. McCown also points out that back in 1954 Mankato won the Bi-State title on a percentage basis. That league was made up of Mankato, Winona, St. Cloud, Eau Claire, River Falls and Stout.

"Well, it really doesn't make any difference," said McCown. "I expected this to happen. I'm sure they (the other coaches) had it decided before the meeting."

The new regulation is going to call for games, with the exception of those played on the last weekend, to be made up. Oh yes, and tie games will be counted a half game won and a half game lost.

At any rate, it seems the Warriors have been had. Faculty members are expected to rule as have the league athletic directors.

THE SWAMI SCORED on 22 of 29 Friday night to run his total to 29 of 42 for a .690 percentage. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, here are his picks for the week:

Stevens Point over WINONA STATE 89-72. "The Pointers have ten lettermen back from the team that beat State last year."

WINONA HIGH over Roosevelt 67-61. "The Hawks will win easier than the final score will indicate."

COTTER over De La Salle 65-62. "This could be a tossup."

Oshkosh over WINONA STATE 71-67. "The Warriors could come through, but the ball says no."

L. Kuhlmann Wins Tourney

Lonnie Kuhlmann Sunday won the Winona 600 Club bowling tournament by nipping Irene Gostomski by two pins.

Lonnie spilled games of 180, 186 and 182 and used 62 pins and of handicap to total 610 and cop the trophy donated by tournament host Hal-Rod Lanes.

Irene Gostomski tipped 608. Palling in line were: Sue Czaplowski 558, Helen Nelson 554, Gert Suchomel 553, Yvonne Carpenter 543, Marianne O'Brien 532 and Betty Englerth 532.

Following bowling, the banquet and meeting was held at Fountain City's Golden Frog. Irene Trimmer was elected president, Carol Ives vice president, Marianne O'Brien secretary, Ruth Lilla treasurer and Yvonne Carpenter sergeant at arms.

Clay Belligerent, Patterson Humble

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — If there was ever a study in contrasting personalities it came in the brightly lighted conference room where a jaunty, almost belligerent Cassius Clay and a battered, humble and apologetic Floyd Patterson held mass interviews after their fight.

First came Clay, swaggering and scowling.

"What's the excuse now?" Clay shouted.

"What's your excuse?" someone shouted back.

"Excuse for what?"

"Excuse for not knocking him out. Why did you carry him?"

"I didn't carry him. He took my best punches. He didn't fall. He was determined. He's a good fighter. You gotta give him credit."

Then a half hour later Patterson stumbled in, half carried by his trainers.

In an unusual demonstration, the entire room of newsmen, photographers and radio and television men burst into applause.

Patterson smiled wanly.

"I am very sorry about what happened tonight," he mumbled. "I had hoped to give Americans a better fight. Unfortunately I was not able to do so."

He had a good excuse, but he did not want to use it — a muscle spasm developed in his back in the third round, a recurrence of an old ailment the only cure for which is rest. He was given injections of xylocaine and deca-dron after the fight to ease the pain which was obvious with every step he took in the ring.

Patterson wound up his news conference proudly.

"Gentlemen I want you to know this," he said. "I will

State Eyes Pointers in '65 Opener

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

It is a cautiously optimistic Dr. Robert Campbell who awaits the opening of the Winona State College basketball season.

The Warriors start at Memorial Hall tonight (game time 7:30 p.m.) against a talented Stevens Point team that returns six of its top seven scorers.

And Campbell will tell you that this game could go a long way in determining how the Statesmen will fare the rest of the way.

"As far as it being the opener, it has to rank as one of our toughest games," said Campbell. "They beat us by 31 points over there last year. Judging from that score (88-57), the game should be one of the best."

To combat the Pointers, Campbell has selected a starting lineup of 6-6 Cotter grad, Mike Jerecek, at center, 6-1 Gary Petersen and 6-4 Tim Anderson at forwards and 6-3 J. D. Barnette and 5-9 Dave Meisner at guards.

In the height department, Stevens Point should be about equal to the Warriors.

In Jerry Lawetzki, Wes Zuege, Grant White, Mike Fortune, Howie Ochs and Jim Fitzgerald, Stevens Point has a solid nucleus.

Lawetzki, for the past two years, has led the team in scoring and Zuege is an all-conference and all-district NAIA product.

Because of what, on paper at least, appears to be a well-rounded Stevens Point scoring attack, Campbell signalled defense as the key.

"And it probably will be throughout the season," he said. "If we can apply the pressure we want to our opponents, it could make a big difference."

Now for the optimistic statements.

Said Campbell: "Depending on our progress and some ifs (such as Petersen's bad knees and grade problems that several cagers must solve), this is potentially as good an outfit, and maybe better, than we have seen at Winona State and will see in many years. It depends upon the progress."

Campbell also hopes to examine his reserve strength to . . . in two games. Mel Hornuth, the Spring Grove, Minn., scoring ace, Charlie Neal (6-7), Al Melin and Chip Schwartz will compete with the freshmen unit against St. Mary's in the 5:30 p.m. preliminary. They also will dress — and most likely will play — for the varsity contest.

While Stevens Point compiled an 11-11 mark overall and 8-8 in the WSUC last year, Winona was 7-15 overall and 3-7 in the Northern Intercollegiate Conference.

Following tonight's opener, Winona will break briefly for the Thanksgiving holiday before moving back into action at Oshkosh, Wis., State University Saturday night.

"Yes," smiled Campbell, "we've got the universities on our schedule again this year."

PETES-GROVERS PLAY WEDNESDAY

The date of the Spring Grove at Peterson Root River Conference basketball game has been moved up from Friday to Wednesday.

The two teams will get together for a "B" squad game beginning at 6:45 p.m. The varsity match will follow.

Blefary Credits Orioles

MAHWAH, N.J. (AP) — Baltimore's Curt Blefary, the American League's Rookie of the Year, who was cut two years ago by the New York Yankees, credits two ex-Yankees with his success.

Blefary, who edged California Angel pitcher Marcelino Lopez for the rookie honor in voting by a 20-man committee of Baseball Writers of America, credited Orioles Coach Gene Woodling and Manager Hank Bauer for his fine freshman year.

"Gene gave me a lot of help, not only in batting but in attitude, hustle and everything else," said Blefary, who lives here with his parents. "Hank gave me the opportunity to play and my teammates helped me correct my mechanical deficiencies and made me feel I belonged."

Blefary walloped 22 home runs, four triples and 23 doubles and drove in 70 runs while batting .260. He pulled 12 votes to edge Lopez, the left-hander who won 14 games and lost 13 for the Angels.

The young outfielder, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., was a football and baseball star in high school at Mahwah and signed with New York for a $27,000 bonus and a college education for which the Yankees are still paying. Blefary has two years to go at Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y., where he is specializing in education for retarded children.

New York signed Blefary in 1942 and the powerful left-hand-

Can Kondla Unlock Door to Gopher Future?

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota's basketball Gophers, who wound up being ranked 7th in the nation by The Associated Press last year, go on public view for the first time in the 1943-44 season tonight when they take on the Gopher freshmen in Williams Arena.

The contest, with the varsity expected to swamp the frosh, is a prelude to the regular season opener a week from Wednesday against the University of North Dakota here.

Most of the attention tonight will center on Tom Kondla, a 6-foot-7 sophomore heavily counted upon as a replacement for departed pivot Mel Northway. The Gophers have lettermen in every other position.

"How well we do this season will depend upon Kondla," Coach John Kundla said. "He's the key."

"We hope Kondla can do the job," Kundla said, "but he's green and he's going to make sophomore mistakes."

Kondla is described by Kundla as a fine shooter, but lacking at this point in several other aspects. With experience, Kundla feels, the rookie can be a good Big Ten center.

To go with him, the Gophers have one of the nation's top All-

America candidates in forward Lou Hudson, plus veterans Archie Clark, Dennis Dvoracek, Wes Martins and Paul Presthus.

The 6-foot-5 Hudson, expected to have a banner senior year after pacing the Gophers in scoring each of the past two seasons with an 18.1 average his sophomore year and a 23.3 average last year, is termed by Kundla "better than ever."

Clark, the 6-1 1/2 senior playmaker who was the No. 2 scorer last year with a 14.4 average, is off to a much better start this season because he was hampered by an ankle injury early last year.

The biggest surprise, Kundla says, has been Presthus, the 6-foot-3 former Rugby, N.D., high school All-American, who played in all 24 games last year as a sophomore but averaged only two points a game.

"Presthus is probably our most improved player," Kundla said. "He lost some of that baby fat and he's moving and shooting much, much better. He could give us a big lift."

Kundla said he plans to start Presthus against North Dakota in the season opener instead of the 6-foot-6 Dvoracek at forward alongside Hudson.

WON'T DISCUSS DRAFT

Finks, Dutch Are Secretive

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings, proud of their "free enterprise" system of scouting the nation's top college football talent, are saying less about their plans for Saturday's National Football League draft than they have in the past.

The Vikings have steadfastly refused to join with other NFL teams in scouting pools, with Coach Norm Van Brocklin insisting he wants no part of the "collectivism" overtones of such combined scouting efforts.

Minnesota prefers to do its own leg work on the scouting in the belief that if it keeps its information to itself it may occasionally land an unknown college player who just might be a star. Most other NFL clubs figure that everybody knows about all the youngsters, so why waste money on duplication of effort.

There is little doubt the Vikings have gotten more secretive about their work this year.

"I can't tell you any specifics," General Manager Jim Finks said Monday about Viking plans for Saturday. "I think a rule that most clubs use is to take the best football player on the board when your turn comes up, especially in the early rounds."

"After that, you can draw for your particular needs. On those first few guys, you've got to be pretty darn sure you're getting players who can play for you."

Finks wouldn't spell out what he or Van Brocklin feel are the Vikings' particular needs.

Van Brocklin was equally non-committal. "We will draft the best football players available to us when our turn comes," he has said.

Minnesota will draft between 7th and 11th. Their first-round position will depend on how Commissioner Pete Rozelle decides to break a five-way tie among clubs with 5-5 records—like the Vikings.

This will be determined Wednesday morning.

On succeeding rounds, the Vikings' choices will rotate from 7 to 8 to 9 to 10 to 11, then back to 7.

"We have 17 picks left," Finks said Monday, although an NFL press release said the Vikings had 18. "We're missing the 6th, 8th, 10th and 20th rounds (traded away), but we have two fifth-round choices. I'm sure that's right."

The clubs get 20 drafts, but frequent trading of choices brings about an imbalance. Baltimore and Philadelphia, for example, each has 22 and Pittsburgh only 15.

Atlanta, the newest franchise which begins operations next fall, gets two picks through the first five rounds—the first and 16th—and will take 25 men.

A total of 305 players will be drafted.

The Vikings have a list of around 250 players from their scouting reports, according to Finks. These are rated as a "one-player, two-player, three-player," etc., according to how the Vikings consider them as prospects. As a player is drafted by another club, he is removed from the list and the Vikings drop down to the next best on their rating sheet.

On area players, all Finks will say is:

"I won't tell you where we rate Minnesota's Aaron Brown, but I can tell you he is rated highly by some of the clubs."

"In this part of the country, he is the most obvious one. But I would say there is a good possibility that we could come up with a boy of Dave Osborn's caliber from this region."

"We've screened a number of kids in this area. We think we've got as good a book on the players as anybody else."

VIKINGS ARE WOOLING TWO COLLEGE STARS

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings are negotiating with two college football players drafted as futures last year, and will begin talks with a third after his school winds up its season Saturday.

The Vikings brought Dick Kotite, a 6-foot-3, 225-pound pass receiver prospect, to the Twin Cities over the weekend for talks but he returned to his Brooklyn, N.Y., home to discuss the matter with his father.

Kotite, who starred a little while at Wagner College on Staten Island, N.Y., also was drafted by the New York Jets and said he would talk to them.

He described the Viking offer as "a good one," and said he expects to "let the Vikings know one way or the other by Wednesday."

John Hankinson, Minnesota Gophers quarterback, also was drafted by the Vikings and the Boston Patriots of the American Football League. Hankinson said he is in no hurry to sign and will weigh both clubs' offers.

The third draftee of Minnesota is end John Thomas of Southern California, which ends its season against Wyoming Saturday.

Rodgers Turns Into Scorer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Guy Rodgers, who used to do most of the feeding when Wilt Chamberlain was stuffing the baskets for San Francisco, has turned into a scorer now that Wilt has moved on to Philadelphia.

The 6-foot Rodgers, a midget among the giants of the National Basketball Association, poured in 39 points and added 10 assists leading the Warriors to a 112-108 victory over the St. Louis Hawks at Memphis, Tenn. Monday night.

Rodgers is eighth in the NBA list of scorers and turned in a career high of 47 against Los Angeles last Friday. He leads the league in assists with 199.

ed batter hit 13 homers in 66 games with Greensboro in the Carolina League. He returned to Greensboro in 1963 as the Yankees' protected player.

TITLE FIGHT

the winner would defend the title against the 6-foot-6 Chicagoan with in six months. The World Boxing Association stripped Clay of title recognition for signing a forbidden return bout with Sonny Liston.

Terrell then gained WBA recognition as champion when he outpointed Eddie Machen at Chicago in an elimination bout. Patterson refused to fight him. Floyd preferred to meet Clay first.

Although Patterson said he was not quitting yet, this may have been his swan song. He is the only fighter ever to win the heavyweight crown twice. He has fought 12 title fights, winning eight by knockouts and losing four the same way, and has grossed more than $7.5 million. Clay, taller, faster and stronger, handed Patterson a fearful beating and a boxing lesson.

Apparently he held to one of his pre-fight statements that he planned to punish "The Rabbit."

The 23-year-old, 6-foot-3

speedster, did nothing but dance and taunt Floyd in the first round. But from the second round on it was pop, pop, pop, with stinging left jabs right smack on target, followed by sharp left-right combinations to the head. He rarely went to the body.

Clay denied that he had carried Patterson. He showed his bare fists. The knuckles on both hands were swollen.

"I didn't carry him," declared Clay. "He took my best punches. He didn't fall. He was determined. He's a good fighter. You gotta give him credit."

"I thought he had Patterson four or five times but let up on the pressure," said retired heavyweight king Rocky Marciano. He did not elaborate.

The knockdown in the sixth round came after Patterson had absorbed a barrage in a corner. His right glove touched the canvas and he was down momentarily.

As the referee was tolling the mandatory eight-count, he stopped at five and ordered Clay to go to a neutral corner. He waited four more seconds for Clay to get in the corner and resumed counting. This time the count went to nine.

Patterson never landed a jarring blow in the entire fight. He several times attempted his famed leaping left hook that had knocked out Archie Moore and Ingemar Johansson, but mostly it was blocked or way off target. Many of the swings were feeble.

Referee Harry Krause had Clay ahead 53-46 on the five points must system, and 8-2-1 in rounds. He gave Patterson the first and 11th and called the fifth even. Judge Bill Stremmel had it 54-43 in points and 10-1 in rounds. He gave Patterson the first.

Judge Harold Buck had it 54-45 and 10-1 in rounds, also giving Floyd the first. The AP card had it 54-44 and 10-1 in rounds, awarding Patterson the first—Clay's dancing, prancing, punchless round.

The promoters said the attendance was 8,106, of which 7,402 paid, and the gross receipts $300,011. The bout was radio broadcast and telecast to the theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada. It was also beamed by Early Bird satellite to theaters in the British Isles.

Clay may have earned $750,000 on his 40 per cent, and Patterson $375,000 on his 20 per cent.

Clay, a 13-5 favorite at fight time, weighed 210 pounds in boosting his record to 22-0, including 18 knockouts. Patterson, who scaled 196 1/2, now has a 43-5 record, four of them knockout losses.

ing with any league official."

The fracas erupted in the final period of the Detroit Red Wings-New York Rangers game played at the Garden Sunday.

Francis protested to goal judge Arthur Reichert that Floyd Smith's third-period shot did not cross the goal line.

Fans in the area where Francis and Reichert were arguing suddenly decided to join in and surrounded the pair. Several New York players then scaled the 10-foot barrier which separates the goal judge from the playing surface and came to assist their boss.

The NHL president added that fines will be assessed those players involved in the melee and that he had given no thought to suspensions as a form of punishment.

Fines Ahead For Players

MONTREAL (AP) — Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, said Tuesday night that Emile Francis, general manager of the New York Rangers, triggered the fracas at Madison Square Garden Sunday night.

"There is no question about it," Campbell said.

"Had he not gone over to protest with the minor official, there would have been no occasion for anybody to get involved," Campbell said.

Hiawatha Picks Kenyon, Lake City Play Tonight

The Hiawatha Valley Conference swings into action tonight with many teams playing inexperienced players and a key battle in Kenyon at Lake City.

The problem facing most coaches in the conference is experience.

"We will be young and lacking experience," said Robert Bagley, Plainview coach. "We will be green with little returning height," said Charles Mettler, Zumbrota coach.

From Frank Hawkes, Cannon Falls coach, "We will be much better than last year but will lack experience."

The conference favorite seems to be Lake City and Kenyon. Last year Kenyon was the District Four Runnerup with a 15-8 record.

Kenyon will be rich in outstanding lettermen this season with six monogram winners on the roster. Coaches Thomas Stone and Ralph Hagberg, have one of the tallest players in the league in James Kindeth.

Returning letter winners are: Kindeth, 6-4, Steve Strandemo, 5-9, Gary Schwake, 6-2, Rick Gates, 6-0, Jack Kispert, 5-7, and Craig Bergevin, 5-7.

Other prospects for the Vikings are Tom Lair 6-1, Lester Oegaard, Jeff Albright 5-4, and Joel Wroldstad 6-2.

KASSON-MANTORVILLE Kasson-Mantorville will have the fewest returning lettermen—one. He is Tom O'Brien, 6-2 center. Last season the Komets finished with an 8-6 conference record.

Other prospects for coach Vern Huse are: Tom Brekke, 5-10 guard; Dan Buegler, 5-10 guard; Dan Currier, 5-10 guard; Milo Engelstad, 6-0 center; Butch Gladden, 5-10 guard; Greg Holtz, 6-0 forward; Dale Leth, 6-0 forward; Rich Palmer, 6-1 forward, and George Pappas, 5-10 forward.

LAKE CITY Mental appetite is the concern of Lake City Coach Bill Holmes. A year ago the Tigers won the conference with a 12-2 record and Holmes feels because of it his team may be too content.

"If our boys decide they are going to go undefeated this year, I'm sure that is what will happen," he says.

Tonight will spell much of the tale since the Tigers host Kenyon, a team Holmes believes is a strong contender.

Back at Lake City are seven lettermen. Only one team in the league, Stewartville, can match that figure. Then, too, the Tigers have outstanding height in Stu Diepenbrock, 6-6 center and the loop's tallest player, 6-2 forward Jim Abraham, 6-4 forward Jim Stenzel. Other lettermen are 5-8 guard Brian Deschneau and 5-9 guard Steve Haase.

Key prospects are 6-1 forward Tom Wallin, 5-11 forward Jim Eggenberger and 5-8 guard Lowell Holmgren.

PLAINVIEW The Plainview Gophers will return to action this season with four lettermen. Last season the Gophers finished with a 7-7 conference record.

Lettermen for coach Robert

Bagley are Dave Walch, 5-7 guard; Dean Harrington, 6-1 Dean Harrington, 6-1 center, and John Mulligan, 5-11 forward.

Top prospects are: Terry Kroenig, 5-7 1/2 guard; Matt Oederman, 6-1 forward; Dean Bowen, 6-1 center; Doug Erickson, 6-1 center; Dick Zabel, 5-11 forward-guard; Larry Schultz, 5-10 guard; Scott Richardson, 5-10 guard-forward, and Bob Hoekstra, 6-0 center.

STEWARTVILLE

Stewartville shares the top of the veteran list. The Tigers have seven returning lettermen. They are: Mike Klomp, 6-2 center; Steve Mount, 6-0 forward; Lance Nickels, 5-10 forward; Bradley Larson, 6-0 forward; Ted McDonough, 5-8 guard, and Donald Beach 5-10 forward.

Other outstanding prospects for coaches Darold Baumgard and Jim Kern are Tim Malone, 5-11 forward; Bob Fisher, 5-8 guard, and David Frie 5-8 guard.

CANNON FALLS

The Bombers will have four lettermen back. Last year they wound up with a 2-12 conference total. This season they have good height but lack an outstandingly tall player.

Returning lettermen are Dennis Flom, 6-0 guard; Jim Althoff, 6-1 center; Bob Bremer, 6-2 1/2 forward; Mick Goudy, 6-0 forward, and Dennis Husby, 5-8 guard.

ST. CHARLES

St. Charles will have four returning lettermen. Last year the Saints finished 3-14.

Returning to Coach Don Behrens are: Bob Eckles, 6-1 forward; Keith Wilson, 5-7 guard; Dick Wilson 5-10 forward, and Gary Connaughty, 5-6 guard.

Other prospects are Dave Morrill, 6-0 center; Jim Gettler, 5-10 forward; Bruce Page, 5-8 guard; Keith O'Brien, 5-10 forward; Dean Mathieson, 5-6 guard; Elliot Hawk, 6-0 center, and Tom Glover, 5-10 center.

ZUMBROTA

The Zumbrota Tigers, after a successful season last year when they finished 11-3 in the conference, will be trying hard to duplicate it.

Coaches Charles Mettler and assistant coach Ken Quiring have three returning lettermen in Dave Sandberg, 5-8 forward and guard; Jerry McWaters, 5-6 guard, and Mike Peterson, 6-0 forward. Other prospects for the Tigers are Jeff Evert, 6-3 center and forward; Dennis Steffen, 5-8 guard; Wayne Anderson, 6-0 center and forward; Joe Hoffman, 6-0 forward; Bill Jensch, 6-1 forward; Byron Borass, 5-10 forward, and Mark Lohman, 5-8 guard.

Grulkowski In 3rd With 971 Pin Game

Grulkowski Beauty Shop, which shoots in the Westgate Ladies League, moved into third place in team game Monday night by scoring 971.

Led by Helen Grulkowski and Esther Kelm with 197 and 191, respectively, the quintet moved ahead of Poot's in the 1965-66 listings.

MARY JO Grulkowski hit 177, Rose Joswick 164 and Peggy Jacobson 151 to round out the team effort. The quint used 91 pins of handicap.

Esther Kelm finished with 535 to spearhead the team to 2.616. Doris Modjeski and Nancy Alampi converted the 3-7-10 split.

In the Hal-Rod City League, Mike Cyert's 604 paced Wally's of Fountain City to 2,940. Oasis dumped 1,034 and Jerry Turner 233 for Pepsi.

KEGLERS in the Westgate Pin Toppers circuit came up with eight 500 counts, paced by 216-528 from Coca-Cola's Irene Bronk. Hamernik's tipped 913 and Winona Insurance 2,629.

Mona Maliszewski shot 526, Vivian H. Brown 524, Irene Gotsomski 517, Yvonne Carpenter 516, Betty Engler 505, Irene Trimmer 513 and Doris Bay 502. Gladys Roetzler converted the 6-7-10.

WESTGATE BOWL: Alley Gators — Carolyn Gerth topped 192 for Nash's. Arlene Kessler paced Fenske's to 859-2504 with her 506. Vera Bell covered the 3-7-10. Jean Pleut made the 2-10 and Doretta Schultz got the 3-7-8.

Community — Bob Schossow rolled 225-585 to lead Schmidt's Beer to 975-2,749.

HAL-ROD LANES: VFW — John Pozanc of Blanche's pitched 226. Chuck Hagendorf of Bubs tallied a 592. Wason's Supper Club picked up 969-2,793. Hamm's and Bunke's tied for the first-round tie.

ASCO Holds 1st In Volleyball

YMCA VOLLEYBALL

ASCO 4 1 Satan Chasers 3 1
Walters 4 1 Tri Bankers 3 1
Setter Uppers 2 4 Net Hangers 1 1

In Monday Volleyball play at the YMCA, ASCO remained in first place, Satan Chasers downed the Net Hangers and Walters bowed to the Setter Uppers.

ASCO gained a forfeit from Tri-Bankers. Satan Chasers moved up by downing Net Hangers 15-13 and 15-6.

In the remaining game, Setter Uppers, topped second place Walters in games of 15-9 and 15-10.

MOST VALUABLE CHAMPION, III (M) — Full-back Jim Grabowski, Illinois all-time top ground gainer, was elected the team's most valuable player Monday night. Grabowski was a unanimous choice.

BREAKS FINGER BRADENTON, Fla. (M) — Joe Nossek, Minnesota Twins outfielder during the 1965 American League season who was playing second base in the Florida instructional league, broke a finger on his left hand here Sunday.

erans, headed by Cliff Anderson and Matt Guokas, Jr.

Penn State and Connecticut, very much in the running a year ago, figure to be right up there again. The Nittany Lions, 20-4 last year, have back Carver Clinton, Ray Saunders and Jim Reed from the club that pressed Princeton before losing 60-58 in the first round of the Eastern NCAA playoffs at Philadelphia last March. Connecticut has eight letterman, including Wes Bialosucki, back from the club that topped a 23-3 record last year and lost by only six points to St. Joseph's in the NCAA eliminations.

St. John's University, which won the NIT tournament last March by beating Villanova, has Sonny Dove back, but the Redmen, under new coach Lou Carnesecca, may find a tough schedule too much. Villanova, too, may fall off since the Wildcats have been hit hard by graduations.

Boston College, 21-7 a year ago, has John Austin back for his last season and the Eagles may make Bob Cousy's third year as coach a bright one. Syracuse could bounce back from a disappointing 1965 season if Dave Bing again hits his stride. Temple may be hard to beat, too.

With All-America Bradley graduated, Princeton may finally be beaten out in the Ivy League although the Tigers will be tough with Ed Hummer, Bob Harlow and Gary Walters back.

Cornell, with a veteran team headed by Steve Cram, is the pre-season Ivy favorite with Penn, headed by Stan Pavlak and Jeff Neuman, a stout contender. The Big Red finished second to Princeton last year with Penn third.

SPORTS SHORTS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS MINNEAPOLIS — The University of Minnesota alumni hockey team scored a 4-2 victory over the Gopher varsity Monday night in the annual game kicking off the university's ice season.

Dick Haigh and Ken Yackel scored first-period alumni goals with the varsity's only answer by Dennis Zacho. The teams traded goals in the second, with Lou Nanne counting for the alumni and Gary Gambucci for the Gophers. Nanne added a final alumni goal in an open varsity net in the final period.

CHICAGO — The Chicago Baseball Writers Association will honor Johnny Klippstein, Minnesota pitcher, at the 28th annual diamond dinner Jan. 16 in the Palmer House.

Klippstein, 38, who has spent 16 years in the major league, will be presented the Ken Hubbs Memorial Award for exemplary conduct on and off the playing field.

BEMIDJI, Minn. — A free throw by Bemidji State's Dave Odegaard broke a 73-73 tie Monday night, and the Beavers held on to edge Minnesota-Morris, 76-75, in a non-conference basketball game.

Odegaard's free throw came with 1:45 left. Bemidji's Norm Manselle scored a basket to make the score 76-73. Doug McIver's basket with five seconds remaining cut the margin to 76-75, but Bemidji took the ball and ran out the clock.

Colorado College and Michigan Tech have taken a jump on the rest of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association field by sweeping weekend season-opening series.

Colorado College beat Michigan State 4-0 and 4-3 at Colorado Springs, while Tech downed new member Minnesota-Duluth 5-1 and 3-2 at Duluth.

Giles Rules Out Plans for NL Expansion

NEW YORK (M) — Warren Giles, president of the National League, virtually has ruled out any further expansion plans until at least the 1967 major league baseball season.

Testifying Monday in the anti-trust suit brought to keep the Milwaukee Braves from moving to Atlanta for the 1966 season, Giles said it would be impossible for the league to place another team in Milwaukee immediately.

"It would be most impractical and impossible to grant a franchise forthwith," said Giles. "You can't think in terms of expansion without at least two teams."

Willard Stafford, special counsel for Wisconsin, then noted that Giles had said earlier that both Milwaukee and Dallas-Fort Worth were seeking franchises.

"It's pretty late to draw up a feasible schedule," Giles said. "It can't be changed without damage to other clubs who have sold tickets. I also don't know enough about Dallas-Fort Worth, and their letter indicates they wouldn't have enough seating for 1968."

"The big objection to expansion is player supply. We saw the impact it had on the talent supply. The talent supply is shrinking because there are fewer minor league teams."

Georgia Gov. Carl E. Sanders was a quarterback on University of Georgia's 1945 Oil Bowl champions.
